The Institute of Company Secretaries of India
Service Rules, 1979

CHAPTER – I

GENERAL

1. These rules shall be known as “The Institute of Company Secretaries of India Service Rules, 1979” \[as amended till 5th November, 2013\] hereinafter referred to as Institute's Service Rules.

2. These rules defining conditions of service including pay and allowances, pay scales, recruitment procedure and promotion policy, travelling and daily allowances, leave, medical facilities, provident fund & retirement benefits, conduct, discipline and appeal procedure applicable to the permanent employees of the Institute shall come into force with effect from 1st August 1979 or such other dates as may be notified by an Office Order of the Institute.

3. The rules shall apply to all existing employees of the Institute at the time of enforcement of the rules as well as to employees who may be appointed hereinafter except in case if any Government servant is on deputation with the Institute then he will not be governed by the rules to the extent to which the rules are inconsistent with the terms and conditions laid down at the time of the deputation to the Institute or as varied from time to time in consultation with the Government concerned.

4. If the rules are silent upon any point then the rules prevalent in the Government of India on that point applicable to the Central Government employees may be made applicable as far as possible, by the Institute issuing separate Office Order in this regard.

5. The Institute reserves to itself the right to amend, alter, vary, modify, remake, rescind or add to these rules or any supplementary rules issued in connection with these rules without previous notice or intention to do so and the right to give effect thereto from any date which it may deem fit, provided that if a rule or order, which affect any employee(s) adversely is to be given retrospective effect, suitable protection shall be given to such employees.

Unless otherwise specifically provided, the provisions contained in Chapter III to VII hereunder will be applicable only to probationary and permanent employees of the Institute.
CHAPTER - III
PAY & ALLOWANCES & OTHER CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

8. Pay Scales:

(1) The pay scales in the Institute for various categories of employees will be as given in 4 [Schedule ‘A’] to these rules and as may be modified by the Council of the Institute from time to time.

(2) The Institute may create any additional grade or revise the grade or grant any special grade to any employee or grant any allowance to a particular employee. The employee may also be given an additional increment in the grades decided from time to time by the Council.

(3) The annual increment mentioned in each grade will be granted as provided in para 21 of this Chapter.

(4) [Deleted]

(5) In the case of officers of the Central or State Government, or public sector undertaking taken on deputation, pay shall be fixed in consultation with the concerned parent authorities.

Provided that the appointing authority may, in lieu of such fixation under rule 8 (5), fix the pay of the deputationist at the appropriate stage in the time scale of the post to which he is appointed equal to the pay drawn by him in his parent department at the time of deputation plus 20% thereof, or if there is no such stage, at the stage immediately higher in such time-scale, but not exceeding the maximum of the time-scale.

Provided further that no person shall be appointed on deputation to any post in the Institute, the minimum of the time-scale of which or in the case of post carrying a fixed pay, the fixed pay of which exceeds

4 Amended vide Office Order No. 17/09 dated 27.02.2009 and in substitution to Office Order No. 118/97 dated 19.11.97
5 Deleted due to introduction of revised pay scales w.e.f. 1.1.2006 [In case the efficiency bar is proposed to be imposed at the stage at which the efficiency bar is indicated in the grades then that would be done by the appointing authority after taking into consideration the past record and after giving to the employee concerned a chance for representation. If it is decided on considering the representation of the employee concerned that efficiency bar is to be imposed then it will not be necessary for the Institute to communicate the reasons to the employee.]
the actual pay drawn by such person in his parent office at the time of deputation by more than 33/1-3%.

(6) In the case of persons who have been superannuated from the service of the Central or any State Government and have been re-employed in the service of the Institute, the pay admissible shall be the pay last drawn in the service of the Central or State Government less pension but in no case it shall exceed the maximum of the scale of pay applicable to the post.

6[While fixing the basic pay & allowances of the person/s joining the Institute after seeking voluntary retirement from the Central Govt./State Govt., or autonomous institutions, the pension and DA being drawn from there earlier employer/s will not be taken into account].

9. Conditions of Employment

The following general conditions shall apply to all appointments under the Institute:

(a) The candidate shall be certified to be medically fit by the medical officer of the Institute or a qualified registered Medical Practitioner(s) as approved by the appointing authority.

(b) A person who has been dismissed from service by the Institute, Central or State Government or any public sector undertaking, will not be eligible for appointment to the service of the Institute.

(c) No person shall be eligible for appointment who has been convicted by a Court of Law for any offence involving moral turpitude.

10. Working hours and Overtime

Subject to any statutory restrictions employees will work during such hours as may be prescribed by the Institute from time to time. Any employee may be asked to work beyond the usual prescribed hours and/or on holidays [including Saturdays/Sundays] notified by the Institute under Rule 29, in case it is necessary to do so in the interest of the exigency of the work.

The working hours are as under:-

6 Inserted vide Office Order No. 64/95 dated 02.09.95.
7 Inserted vide Office Order No.117/09 dated 16.12.09 and 91/10 dated 05.10.10.
11. Appointing Authority

The Authority competent to make appointments to various posts is as under:

(a) Officers of the level of Asstt. Directors and above - President
(b) Officers below the level of Asstt. Director, and supervisory and non-supervisory staff - Secretary.

12. Modes of Recruitment

Any post in the Institute may be filled up either by direct recruitment or by promotion or by transfer as per the recruitment policy given in Schedule 'B' to these Rules and as may be amended by the Council from time to time. The Institute reserves the right to keep any employee of the Central or State Government on deputation for such period as the Institute may deem fit. After the expiry of the period, the Institute may either repatriate such employee or take the employee into its own employment, with the consent of the employee as well as of the Government. It will be at the discretion of the Institute to fill up post by any of the modes mentioned hereinabove.

13. Qualifying Service for Promotion

No employee will be considered for promotion unless he has been confirmed after satisfactorily completing the period of probation and has completed five years of qualifying service in the next below post including the probationary period. In case an employee has worked on temporary or casual basis then the period during which he has worked on temporary or casual basis will not be counted for the purpose of completing the five years qualifying period of service.

14. Promotion Policy

The promotion will be made as per promotion policy given in Schedule ‘C’ to these Rules and as may be amended by the Council from time to time. Seniority for purposes of promotion will be counted from the date of confirmation in the post or equivalent post and if more than one employee are confirmed in a particular date then the seniority may be determined on the basis of the total length of service put in by the employees or on any other basis as deemed fit and proper by the appointing authority in the circumstances of that case. When an employee of the Institute is promoted from one scale to a next higher scale in the service of the Institute his initial pay in the time-scale of the higher post shall be fixed at the stage next above the pay notionally arrived at by increasing his pay in respect of the lower post by one increment at the stage at which such pay has accrued.

15. Prescription of Qualification and Experience for each Post

The qualifications, age and experience prescribed for each post for the time being in force will be as given in Schedule ‘D’ to these Rules and as may be amended by the Council from time to time but the appointing authority may relax the qualifications, age or experience for any particular post or candidate, if the candidate selected is otherwise considered by the Selection Committee as the most suitable for that post.

10 Inserted vide Office Order No.63/06 dated 26.09.06 effective from 01.10.06.
Provided that for employees in the service of the Institute as on 01.08.1979, the qualifications prescribed in and given in Schedule ‘D’ will not be required for the purpose of promotion up to the level of 11[Desk Officers] subject to the condition that the candidates are found otherwise suitable for promotion.

16. Transferability of Service

The services of an employee are transferable to any office of the Institute in India. For journeys on transfer from one station to another at the instance of the Institute on office exigencies, an employee will be entitled to the actual cost of transportation and travelling allowances and as specified from time to time by the Council. No transportation or transfer, TA/DA will be admissible if a transfer is made by the Institute on personal grounds at the request of the employee.

2. Personal Conveyance:

Actual cost of transportation of personal conveyance i.e. car/motorcycle/scooter/bicycle (according to the entitlement to advance for purchase of car/motorcycle/scooter/bicycle) by passenger/goods train is admissible.

Note:

1. Actual fare for self and family for journey as per entitlement.
2. Personal effects should be transported by goods train between places connected by train. If transported by road, the actual expenditure or 1¼ times of the amount admissible for transport by goods train for the maximum admissible quantity, (whichever is less) will be admissible.

3. Cost of transportation of “Personal Effects” from residence to railway station (local) & from railway station to residence at new place of posting will be reimbursed.

4. Actual cost of transportation of personal conveyance i.e. car/motorcycle/scooter/bicycle (according to the entitlement to advance for purchase of car/motorcycle/scooter/bicycle) by passenger/goods train is admissible. If transported by road, the actual expenditure or 1¼ times of the amount admissible for transport by goods train, whichever is less, will be reimbursed.

5. An employee whose family does not accompany him/her to the new station while joining on transfer, has an option to claim for himself/herself:

   - either for the journey undertaken to join the new post
   - or for the journey subsequently undertaken alongwith the family members.

6. Actual conveyance (Taxi/Auto) expense from residence to railway station and vice-versa at both ends for the employee and members of his/her family will be reimbursed, as per entitlement.

7. When the conveyance is sent under its own propulsion, the employee/members of family traveling in the car will not be entitled to separate fare by air/rail/road mileage. Separate air/rail/road mileage will be admissible for the employee and/or members of family if they travel otherwise than by the conveyance being transported under its own propulsion.]

Further, an employee who retires from the services of the Institute on attaining the age of superannuation or takes voluntary retirement as per the Institute of Company Secretaries of India Service Rules, 1979, will be entitled to the reimbursement of expenses incurred on transportation of personal effects from the place of last posting to the declared place of home town, as per the limits applicable on transfer.]

and his family and not exceeding \(^{38}\) [two unmarried dependent children.]

An employee travelling to any place other than Home Town will be entitled to reimbursement of travelling expenses incurred on rail/bus/steamer fare not exceeding one month’s gross salary (excluding conveyance, washing and any other special allowance) or alternatively, the employee can travel to home town by the admissible mode of transport and class of travel by a practicable direct route and claim reimbursement as normally applicable to Central Government employees.

(d) The LTC is admissible once in alternative block of two calendar years to any place in India by the admissible mode of transport and class of travel by practicable direct route and the employee can claim reimbursement as normally applicable to Central Government employees in respect of himself, his wife / her husband, the wholly dependent parents who are residing with the employee and a maximum of two unmarried dependent children. \(^{39}\) [Provided that the dependent children whose income from all sources does not exceed Rs.1,500 per month].

(e) For travel to a place other than home town, the employee and his family member(s) should travel together.

(f) The block of two calendar years will be treated to have commenced from 1\(^{st}\) January, 1984.

(g) The LTC will be granted to an employee only when he avails of earned leave \(^{40}\) [or Casual Leave] for a minimum period of five days, \(^{41}\) [which can be prefixed / suffixed with the closed holidays including the Restricted Holidays] subject to prior permission of HOD/Secretary.

(h) In all cases of LTC, necessary proof of journeys is to be produced to the satisfaction of the Institute for reimbursement of expenses as admissible.

(i) If an employee avails of LTC to visit a place other than home town under clause (c) above, he may use a higher mode of transport but the reimbursement will be limited to the bus/steamer/rail fare of the class of travel to which he is entitled.

CHAPTER – V

LEAVE AND HOLIDAYS

25. Leave Entitlement

(1) All leave will be granted at the convenience of the Institute and nothing shall limit the free discretion of the Institute to refuse, revoke or curtail leave as the exigencies of the Institute work may require from time to time.

(2) In the interest of the Institute and at the sole discretion of the Institute, an employee may be directed to go on leave for a specified period.

(3) All Saturdays, Sundays and Holidays which fall at the beginning and/or at the end of the period of leave shall not be counted as part of the leave. Saturdays, Sundays and Holidays which fall within the leave period shall, however, be counted as part of the leave except in case of Casual Leave.

(4) All leave except earned leave lapses on the cessation of the employee’s service except in the case of retrenchment, death or retirement.

(5) The employees on leave shall not take up any other service, assignment or employment without the prior written approval of the Secretary and in the case of Secretary with the prior written approval of the President.

(6) For the purposes of calculating leave account, year shall mean calendar year commencing on the first day of January of each year.

(7) For the purpose of these rules “Leave Pay” shall mean regular monthly emoluments drawn by the employee immediately before proceeding on leave.

26. Kinds of leave and their Entitlement

The following kinds of leave shall be admissible to an employee:

(1) Casual Leave: 12 days in the course of a year. Casual leave will be admissible to all employees excluding casual and temporary employees but including probationers. Unavailed Casual Leave shall lapse at the end of every year and no pay shall be due or payable in lieu of Casual Leave. Casual leave may ordinarily be granted for religious ceremonies, sickness and/or unforeseen reasons. Applications should normally be made in advance. If it is not possible for an employee to apply in advance then he shall apply for the same as soon as practicable. Casual leave shall not be combined with any other leave except Restricted Holiday.

(2) Special Casual Leave: Special casual leave may be granted to an employee who is not able to attend office due to civil disturbances, curfew or riots. An employee who donates blood on a working day may be granted Special Casual Leave for that day. Any employee participating in sports events of national or international importance in a representative capacity may be granted Special Casual Leave for a period not exceeding 30 days in any one calendar year.

(3) Earned Leave:

   (a) A permanent employee shall be credited 30 days Earned Leave during the course of a year. Credit of 15 days leave will be given to an employee on the first day of January and July every year for every completed year of service. For service of less than 12 months, proportionate Earned Leave shall be credited to an employee for every completed month. Earned leave may be accumulated upto a maximum period of \(49\text{ days}\). All accumulated leave in excess of this period shall lapse and stand forfeited and no leave pay shall be due or payable in respect of such excess leave unless such excess accumulation is sanctioned in writing by the President. For the purpose of calculating the period of Earned Leave due to an employee, his probationary period of service, if any, shall be taken into account.

   (b) Except and to the extent provided by any law, no employee shall be entitled to encashment of leave if he is dismissed or discharged on account of misconduct or if he resigns from the service.

   (c) Pay in lieu of accumulated earned leave may be paid to an employee who resigns from service after due notice and who has completed a minimum period of 2 years service and with the written approval of the President.

(d) On retirement an employee may be allowed encashment upto a maximum of \[50\text{[300]}\] days of his accumulated earned leave.

(e) Earned leave shall not be combined with casual Leave. Restricted Holiday can be prefixed or suffixed with Earned Leave.

(f) No employee on leave shall return to duty before the expiry of the period of leave granted to him except with the permission of the appointing authority.

(g) When an employee who has proceeded on leave with pay is directed by the Institute to rejoin duty before he has fully availed of the leave granted to him, he shall be deemed to have rejoined duty on the date on which he commences his journey from leave station for reporting to the place of duty as directed by the Institute. In such an event, an employee shall be permitted on rejoining duty either:

(i) To carry forward to his leave account the portion of the sanctioned leave not availed of by him;

(ii) To retain the leave pay if already drawn by him whereupon his leave account shall be debited for the full period of leave as sanctioned.

(4) Leave on Half Pay:

(a) A permanent employee shall be eligible for leave on half pay in two installments of 10 days each on 1st January and 1st July of each year.

(b) An employee may be granted leave on half pay either on a certificate of sickness from a medical practitioner(s) approved by the Institute in this behalf or on private affairs. The leave on half pay for private affairs shall not be granted unless the earned leave to the credit of an employee is exhausted.

(c) Leave on half pay on certificate of sickness may be commuted to leave on average pay for the period of leave due on half pay.

(d) The leave on half pay account of the employee will be debited

50 Substituted for ‘240 days’ vide Office Order No. 5/98 dated 18.2.1998 for twice the period of such commuted leave.

(5) Maternity Leave:

Maternity leave on full pay for a period not exceeding [135 days], may be granted to a female employee on not more than two occasions during the entire service. Maternity leave may be combined with any other kind of leave except Casual Leave. However, any leave applied for in continuation of the former leave may be granted only on sickness of the employee or her child, supported by a medical certificate approved by the medical officer of the Institute. It may also be granted to employee on probation; provided no maternity leave shall be admissible in the first nine months of employment.

Maternity leave would include abortion leave but leave on full pay in case of abortion would be restricted to a total period of not more than 45 days. However, during the entire service only on two occasions a female employee shall be eligible for grant of maternity leave including leave granted, if any, in case of abortion.

(6) Extraordinary Leave:

Extraordinary leave may be granted in special circumstances when no other leave is admissible or when it is specifically asked for in writing, subject to the following conditions:

(a) It is not debited against the leave account.

(b) No leave salary is admissible during such leave. However, HRA [Deleted] will be admissible for the first 180 days of all kinds of leave including extraordinary leave without pay.

(c) It may be combined with any other kind of leave but the total period of such combined absence should not exceed [five years].

(d) The appointing authority, to grant leave, may commute retrospectively periods of absence without leave into extraordinary leave.

(h) Compulsory retirement of an employee in accordance with the provision relating to superannuation or retirement

   (i) Discharge of an employee for failure to pass a medical test prescribed for appointment to any category of post

61. Authority competent to impose penalty

The Secretary of the Institute under the existing regulations or Appointing authority or any other authority designated by the Council who may be superior to the appointing authority, may impose on an employee any of the penalties specified herein.
62. Procedure for imposing penalties

No penalty shall be imposed on any employee unless the charge or charges on which it is proposed to take disciplinary action against an employee has been communicated to him in writing and he has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the action proposed to be taken against him. The competent authority may, if circumstances so warrant hold an enquiry into the charges or cause such an enquiry to be held by any officer subordinate to him but superior to the person [or an outside inquiry officer, whenever so required, having expertise in holding such Domestic/Disciplinary enquiry] against whom action is proposed to be taken for the purpose of ascertaining the truth or otherwise of the charges. If it is decided to hold an enquiry, an employee shall be permitted to cite witnesses on his behalf and examine the relevant documents but, shall not be permitted to engage a lawyer at the enquiry.

63. Appeal to President

(1) Every appeal received against the penalty imposed under these rules (Discipline & Appeal) within a period of one month from the date on which the appellant receives a copy of the order imposing the penalty shall be submitted to the President.

Provided that the President may entertain the appeal after the expiry of the said period if he is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not submitting the appeal in time.

(2) Every appeal shall be submitted through the authority which passed the order appealed against and such authority shall transmit the appeal to the President as early as possible.

(3) The President may in consultation with the Council:

(a) set aside, reduce, confirm or enhance the penalty;
(b) remit the case to the authority which imposed penalty or to any other authority with such directions as he may deem fit in the circumstances of the case;

Provided that the President shall not pass any order imposing an enhanced penalty unless the appellant is given a reasonable opportunity of making any representation which he may wish to make against imposition of such enhanced penalty.

(4) The decision of the President shall be final.

64. Suspension

(1) The appointing authority or any authority to which the appointing authority is subordinate or the Disciplinary Authority or any other authority empowered in that behalf by the President by general or special order may place an employee under suspension:

(a) Where a disciplinary proceeding against him is contemplated or is pending; or

(b) Where a case against him in respect of any criminal offence (except in the due performance of official duties) is under investigation or trial.

(2) Where a penalty of dismissal or removal or compulsory retirement from service imposed upon an employee under suspension is set aside on appeal or on review under these rules and the case is remitted back for further inquiry or action or with any other directions, the order of his suspension shall be deemed to have continued in force on and from the date of the original order of dismissal or removal or compulsory retirement and shall remain in force until further orders.

(3) Where a penalty of dismissal or removal or compulsory retirement from service imposed upon an employee is set aside or declared or rendered void in consequence of or by a decision of a court of law and the disciplinary authority, on consideration of the circumstances of the case, decides to hold a further inquiry against him on the allegations on which the penalty or dismissal or removal or compulsory retirement was originally imposed, the official shall be deemed to have been placed under suspension from the date of the original order of dismissal or removal or compulsory retirement and shall continue to remain under suspension until further orders.

(4) An order of suspension made or deemed to have been made under those rules may at any time be revoked by the authority which made or is deemed to have made the order or by any authority to which that authority is subordinate.

(5) An order of suspension made or deemed to have been made shall continue to remain in force until it is modified or revoked.

65. Subsistence Allowance

(1) An employee under suspension shall be entitled to draw subsistence allowance equal to 50 per cent of basic pay provided the disciplinary authority is satisfied that the employee is not engaged in any other employment or business or profession or vocation. In addition he shall be entitled to Dearness Allowance admissible on such subsistence allowance and [Deleted], House Rent Allowance etc., of which he was in receipt on the date of suspension provide the suspending authority (Secretary) is satisfied that the employee continues to meet the expenditure for which the allowance was granted.

(2) Where the period of suspension exceeds six months, the authority which made or is deemed to have made the order of suspension shall be competent to vary the amount of subsistence allowance for any period subsequent to the period of the first six months as follows:

   (a) the amount of subsistence allowance may be increased to 75 per cent of basic pay and allowances thereon if in the opinion of the said authority, the period of suspension has been prolonged for reasons to be recorded in writing not directly attributable to the employee under suspension;

   (b) if the period of suspension is prolonged because departmental enquiry against him is incomplete due to reasons attributable to the employee then the subsistence allowances will be reduced to 25%.

66. Treatment of the period of suspension

(1) When the employee under suspension is reinstated, the competent authority shall grant to him the following pay and allowances for the period of suspension:

   a) if the employee is exonerated and is not awarded any of the penalties mentioned in these rules, the full pay and allowance less the subsistence allowance already paid to him; and

   (b) if otherwise, such proportion of pay and allowances as the appointing authority may prescribe.

76 Deleted the words “any other compensatory allowance such as City Compensatory Allowance” in view of Office Order No. 17/2009 dated 27.02.09.
(2) In the case of exoneration of an employee under rule 66(1)(a) the period of absence from duty on account of suspension will be treated as period spent on duty. In a case falling under 66(1)(b), it will not be treated as a period spent on duty unless the appointing authority so specifically directs.

(3) An appeal against any order or suspension shall lie to a higher authority next to the one issuing the order of suspension.

67. Provisions regarding officers borrowed from Central or State Governments, Public Sector Undertakings and other sources

(1) Where an order of suspension is made or disciplinary proceedings are taken against a Government Servant or an employee of a Public Sector Undertaking whose services have been borrowed from that Government or an authority subordinate thereto, or from such undertaking, the authority lending his services (hereinafter in this regulation referred to as the “lending authority”) shall forthwith be informed of the circumstances leading to the order of his suspension, or the commencement of disciplinary proceedings, as the case may be.

(2) In the light of the findings in the disciplinary proceedings taken against the borrowed employee of the Government/Public Sector Undertaking:

   if the disciplinary authority is of the opinion that any of the penalties specified in these rules should be imposed on him he may, after consultation with the lending authority pass such orders as it deems necessary.

Provided that in the event of a difference of opinion between the borrowing authority and the lending authority of the Government servant or employee of the Public Sector, the employee shall immediately be replaced at the disposal of the lending authority.

68. Application(s) for jobs outside the Institute should invariably be routed through the Institute. The Institute will forward such application(s) at its discretion, not more than one in case of persons who have not completed at least three years in the existing grade. In case of persons who have completed three years and above, not more than two applications may be forwarded per calendar year at the discretion of the Institute.

SCHEDULE ‘B’

RECRUITMENT PROCEDURE
(See Rule 12 of Service Rules)

The Council shall have full discretion to recruit employees for any post in any manner as it deems fit. The Council hereby lays down the following recruitment procedure to be observed for appointment to all posts of the Institute until further announcement is made in this behalf by the Council. Any deviation from this procedure should have the specific approval of the President for posts upto and including the level of Asstt. Directors and the Executive Committee for posts above the level of Asstt. Directors.

1. Methods of Recruitment

A post may be filled up by any of the following methods of recruitment :

(a) By promotion of internal candidates;
(b) By transfer of internal candidates;
(c) By direct recruitment;
(d) By borrowing on deputation from Government and other sources;
(e) By availing the services of the Placement Agency(ies)/Jobsite(s)].

2. Recruitment for Officers’ Posts

(a) For direct recruitment of posts of officers of the level of Administrative Officers and above the vacancy will be advertised in Chartered Secretary and/or in one or more English newspapers largely circulated in the local area of appointment, apart from considering other avenues for receiving applications. Candidates fulfilling the requisite qualifications and experience after preliminary screening as may be decided by the Secretary/President shall be called for interview. Ordinarily the number of persons called for interview shall be five times the number of vacancies.

(b) The Executive Committee or a Selection Board constituted under the rules, shall interview and draw a panel of candidates for appointment in order of merit and forward the same to the appointing authority for necessary action. The Executive Committee/Selection Board may relax the age, educational qualifications and/or experience, if any candidate is otherwise considered to be most suitable for the post.

Inserted vide Office Order No. 56/06 dated 1.8.06.
(c) The appointing authority shall make appointments in accordance with the recommendations of the Executive Committee/Selection Board. Such recommendations would have to be approved by the President in case the Selection Board consisted of members other than the President for posts above the level of Assistant Directors.

(d) The panel will be valid for a period of one year from the date drawn unless shorter or longer duration is specified by the Selection Board, the Secretary or as the case may be.

3. Recruitment for other Posts

For other supervisory and all non-supervisory posts, the appointing authority may either arrange for the issue of an advertisement in a newspaper or invite applications from Employment Exchanges, professional organizations and institutions which provide such services and also entertain unsolicited applications received and registered in the Institute from time to time. The course of action in this regard will depend on the number of vacancies and the time available to fill up the vacancies. Suitable candidates shall be called for interview after preliminary screening and shall ordinarily be four times the number of vacancies. Candidates registered with Employment Exchange will normally be given preference for the posts upto and including the level of Senior Assistants. The final selection shall be made by the appropriate Selection Board on the basis of personal interview and written tests, if any, arranged by the appointing authority as the exigencies may demand. The panel will be valid for a period of one year or any longer or shorter period as specified by the Selection Board or appointing authority. The President may relax age, educational qualifications and/or experience if any candidate is otherwise considered to be most suitable for the post.

4. All local candidates shall normally be required to appear for interview(s) at their own expense. Outstation candidates may be given single return rail fare not exceeding first class fare as the appointing authority may determine for such interview attended by a candidate.

5. Every selected candidate shall be required before appointment to submit themselves to medical examination by a qualified registered medical practitioner, approved by the Institute.

78 [Regular employees of the Institute are eligible to apply for appointment to the higher posts advertised by the Institute from time to time provided the said employees have completed three years of regular service as on the date of

78 Inserted new para as per internal note no. 515:5:Estt. dated 11.7.95
advertisement in the next below grade in the Institute. Application of such employees will be considered subject to their having at least 2 “Good” & above in the annual reports out of last 3 years reports].

6. Selection Boards

For officers posts of the level of Deputy Directors and above the selection will be made by the Executive Committee or a Selection Board constituted to it including the following:

Selection Board for Direct Recruitment & Departmental Promotion Committee (DPC) & Increments

(a) For officers posts of the level of Deputy Directors and above, the Selection for Direct Recruitment and Departmental Promotion will be made by the Executive Committee or Selection Board / Departmental Promotion Committee constituted by the Executive Committee comprising of the following :-

1. President / Vice-President / A Council Member nominated by the Executive Committee
2. Secretary / Chief Executive
3. An Outside Expert to be decided by the President and Secretary / Chief Executive
PROMOTION POLICY
(See Rule 14 of Service Rules)

1. Criteria for promotion

Whereas the Council has the inherent right and absolute discretion to fill up any post in any manner in the best interest of the Institute as it deems fit, in order to provide job satisfaction and growth opportunity lays down the following Promotion Policy in pursuance of Rule 14 of the Institute’s Service Rules.

(i) As far as possible, first opportunity will be given to employees eligible for internal promotions subject to availability of suitable employees having prescribed qualifications and experience for each post. In exceptional cases, the Executive Committee may relax the educational qualifications, experience and other requirements for any particular post.

(ii) The basic principles of promotion will be merit-cum-seniority. The merit will be ascertained by a Selection Board or Departmental Promotion Committee based on the assessment reports maintained for each employee and the general conduct and behaviour of the employee.

(iii) Subject to office exigencies employees may be allowed to attend part-time courses which are of use for the promotional opportunities within the Institute after office hours with the prior written approval of the Institute, but such permission may similarly be withdrawn if office exigencies so demand.

(iv) Only an employee who has put in at least five years of service in his existing grade or post will normally be eligible for consideration for promotion to the next higher level, grade or post. The criteria of five years service could be relaxed by the Executive Committee in highly meritorious and deserving cases. However, this does not give a right to the employee to claim promotion after the expiry of such period.

(v) While promoting, the Selection Board, Departmental Promotion Committee/Secretary will ensure that the employee is not losing monetarily as a result of promotion to the next post/grade.
2. Reservation for Internal Promotions

The general policy of the Council is to encourage involvement of all employees to work for the further growth of the Institute. Accordingly the Council will always consider eligible employees for further promotion before considering direct recruitment for any post. The promotion to the following posts are specifically reserved for internal candidates and direct recruitment will be resorted to for such posts only when the Executive Committee decides that no internal candidate is suitable for the post although the employee might fulfil the qualifications and experience for the post.

(a) 100% of posts for promotion as Senior Attenders, Jr. Technicians.
(b) 90% of posts for Assistants/Technicians.
(c) 66-2/3% of posts for Senior Assistants, Technical Assistants, Senior Stenographers, Personal Assistants, Senior Personal Assistants; Asstt. Education Officers and Section Officers.
(d) 50% of posts for Administrative Officers; and Education officers.
(e) 50% of posts for Asstt. Directors and Deputy Directors.

3. If internal candidates are not found suitable for promotion even though they might possess the requisite qualifications and experience, the appointing authority with the approval of an authority superior to him (viz. President/Executive Committee/Council) will be free to recruit from outside the Institute, persons with requisite qualifications and experience.
SCHEDULE ‘D’

QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE PRESCRIBED FOR EACH POST IN THE INSTITUTE
(See Rule 15 of Service Rules)

The following qualifications and experience have been prescribed for each post. The appointing authority, with the approval of President in the case of posts up to and including the level of Asstt. Director and with the approval of the Executive Committee in the case of other officers posts, may relax the qualifications age or experience, if a candidate is otherwise considered most suitable for the post. Normally the maximum age limits for posts up to and including the posts of Administrative Officers/Education Officers will be 35 years and for other higher posts 45 years.

SCHEDULE ‘E’

ICSI’s FAMILY HOSPITALIZATION & MEDICAL PLAN
(See Rule 30 of Service Rules)

With the object of providing basic protection to the employees and their family members against hospitalization and medical expenses caused by sickness and accident and to relieve to the extent specified herein the financial burden that employees might otherwise incur, the Council hereby announces the Hospitalization & Medical Plan as under in pursuance of Rule 30 as amended by Council from time to time:

1. This plan will go into effect for the employees and eligible members of his family starting with the first day of regular confirmed employment. [The Medical facility during probation at par with the permanent employee of the Institute, in respect of officers who have joined the services of the Institute on ‘lateral entry basis & against the permanent vacancy as well as where adequate past experience etc. was prescribed for such vacancy/post(s). However, in the event of resignation of such officers, prior to one year of service or confirmation (whichever is later) the said officers shall be entitled to such benefits on pro-rata basis only. Further officials recruited in the Institute against permanent vacancy at the induction level (i.e. MTs etc.) shall be entitled to such regular benefits only upon their completion of probation as per the existing rules.] For the purpose of this Plan ‘family’ as defined in the Service Rules and the dependent parents shall mean as follows:

   a) A parent will be regarded as wholly dependent on the employee who normally resides with the employee concerned and whose (parents) total monthly income does not exceed the pay plus dearness pay (where applicable) of the employee or Rs.1500/- per month whichever is low.

   b) The declaration regarding the income and resident of the parents should be furnished by the employee along with other particulars of family to Accounts Department once in the beginning of every calendar year.

   c) Lump sum non-recurring income such as contributory Provident Fund benefits, Gratuity/Commuted Gratuity, insurance benefits, etc. will not be regarded as ‘income’ for this purpose.

[85 Substituted for Rs. 250/- vide Office Order No. 11/98 dated 06.04.98.]
d) Recurring monthly income from sources, such as, houses, land holdings, etc. will, however, be taken into account for the purpose of assessing income.

e) In case of parents drawing government pension, the interim relief granted to a Central Government pensioner will not be treated as part of the income of the dependent parents for the purpose of determining their dependence on the employee for the purpose of medical benefit.

f) In case the members of the family of the employee reside at a place other than his duty station and his parents also reside with the rest of the family members, the condition regarding residence of the parents with the employee may be waived.

g) Female employee(s) will be given the choice to include either her parents or her parents-in-law for the purpose of availing of the benefits under the ICSI Family Hospitalization and Medical Plan subject to the fulfillment of conditions of dependence and residence as stipulated above.

h) The female employee should immediately after her marriage or if already married within two months, give a declaration as to whether she would like to include her parents or parents-in-law for the purpose of availing the medical benefits under this Medical Plan. She can change her option only once during the entire period of her service.

2. All claims under this Plan should be submitted in the prescribed form duly signed by at least the Sectional Head and sent to the Dte. of Accounts.

3. Dte. of Accounts shall scrutinize the claims and arrange for payment as per the rates given in rule 30 and as per procedure prescribed by the Secretary from time to time.

5. EVIDENCE OF INSURABILITY

For the purpose of effecting terms Assurance in respect of the member, evidence of insurability satisfactory to the Corporation shall be required prior to the employee’s entry into the Trust and on each occasion when an increase in sum assured is to be granted.

SECTION – II

6. CONTRIBUTION AND SCHEME OF INSURANCE

There shall be paid by the __________________ either we use the term Institute or _________ to the Trustees in respect of each member the contribution mentioned in sub-paragraph (i) below annually in advance on the date of entry of the member into the Trust and on the relevant Annual Renewal Dates and the contributions mentioned in sub-paragraph (ii) below in one lump sum on the date of entry or in not more than five annual installments commencing from the date of entry into the Trust and the Trustees shall pay the same to the Corporation for providing the gratuity benefits to the members under a scheme of insurance.

i. Ordinary Annual Contribution : The ordinary annual contribution shall be such an amount as shall be determined and recommended by the Corporation for securing the benefits herein before described. The contribution shall be expressed as a percentage of the salary of each member and may be varied from time to time on the basis of an evaluation of the benefits to be made at intervals of not more than five years. The contributions will be paid throughout the service of the members unless specified otherwise in the Rules.

ii. Initial Contribution : The Institute may pay any sums by way of initial contributions in respect of members relating to their past service with the Institute as shall be determined and recommended by the Corporation for securing the benefits relating to such past service and on paying such sums shall advise the Trustees as to their allocation to all or specified members.
Provided that the contribution payable by the Institute in any year in respect of any member in terms of sub-paragraph (i) above shall not exceed 8.33% of the salary, paid to the member during the year and that the initial contribution referred to in sub-paragraph (ii) above shall not exceed 8.33% of the salary paid to the member for each year of his past service with the Institute. Provided further that if the contributions are not sufficient to secure full benefits as described before, the benefits will be appropriately scaled down.

7. SCHEME OF INSURANCE

(i) The Trustees shall enter into a scheme of insurance with the Corporation for providing the benefits to the members. Subject to the provisions of Rule 5, an assurance will be effected on the life of each member under One Year Renewable Term Assurance Plan for a sum equal to the difference between (a) fifteen days’ salary as on the date of entry into the Scheme or the Annual Renewal Date, as the case may be, for each year of his Anticipated Service and (b) fifteen days’ salary as on the day/on the day of entry into the Trust or the Annual Renewal Date as the case may be for each year of service. Provided that the Corporation may, in the case of any member restrict the sum assured for which the assurance is to be effected to a smaller amount on the basis of the evidence of health submitted in respect of that member. The assurance will be renewed on the Annual Renewal Dates for appropriate sums assured.

(ii) After appropriating the required amount towards the premium payable year to year for the life assurance benefit the balance of the contributions will be held by the Corporation in a running account for the credit of the Trustees. The Corporation will allow interest on the balance remaining in the running account for each financial year ending 31st March at a rate to be determined by the Corporation at the close of the year.

(iii) When gratuity becomes payable to a member on his retirement or cessation of service, or to his Nominee in the event of his death, the Corporation shall forthwith pay to the Trustees the benefits payable according to the Rules out of the balance remaining in the running account and under the Term Assurance.
SECTION – III

BENEFITS

8. BENEFITS ON DEATH BEFORE NORMAL RETIREMENT DATE

a) Upon the death of a member while in service before Normal Retirement Date, the benefit payable will be equal to fifteen days’ salary as on the day of death for each year of his Anticipated Service, PROVIDED that in respect of a member for whom the Term Assurance effected in terms of Rule – 7 is insufficient to provide the above stated benefits, the benefits payable will be equal to the total of:
   (i) The sum assured under the Term Assurance on the date of death; and
   (ii) Fifteen days’ salary for each year of service upto the date of death.

b) In respect of a member for whom life cover has not been granted to the full extent, the benefits payable be equal to the total of:
   (i) The sum assured under the Term Assurance on the date of death; and
   (ii) Fifteen days’ salary for each completed year of service upto the date of death.

9. BENEFITS OF LEAVING SERVICE

Upon a member leaving the service of the Institute of his own free will after completion of five years of continuous service the benefits payable will be equal of fifteen days’ salary as on the day of leaving service for each year of continuous service or part thereof in excess of six months service. The member will not be entitled to any benefits if he leaves the service before completing five years of continuous service.

PROVIDED that wherever a member leaves the services of the Institute and joins the services of any employer who is created by any Act of Parliament or if Legislature or Central or State Government or Government Company as defined under the Companies act, the amount of gratuity already earned by the member, irrespective of number of years of service rendered by him will be transferred to the new employer if the new employer agree to accept such amount.

PROVIDED further that wherever a member, joins the services of the Institute after leaving the services of any employer who is created by any Act of Parliament or State Legislature, Central Government or State Governments or the Government Company as defined under the Companies Act, the Institute will accept the transfer and the amount of gratuity already earned by him under his previous employer.

10. PAYMENT OF GRATUITY

The gratuity payable in respect of any member under the Trust will be paid in a lump sum.

SECTION – IV

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

11. RESTRAINT ON ASSIGNMENTS ETC

The benefits assured under the Trust are strictly personal and cannot be assigned, charged or alienated in any way.

12. Except as provided in these Rules, no member or his Nominee shall have any legal claim, right or interest in the Trust. PROVIDED ALWAYS THAT the Trustees shall administer the Trust for the benefit of the members and their Nominees in accordance with the provisions of these Rules.

13. JURISDICTION

The Master Policy issued under the Trust shall be an Indian contract subject to the Laws of India including the Income-Tax Act, 1961, the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 and to any legislation subsequently introduced. All benefits under the Scheme shall be payable only in India. Should anything contained in these Rules, or in any amendment made thereof be repugnant to any provision or provisions of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 or the Income-Tax Rules, 1962, it shall be ineffective to the extent of such repugnance. Any such repugnance shall be removed by the Trustees if so directed by the Commissioner of Income-Tax.
14. MASTER POLICY

The Corporation will issue a single Master Policy to the Trustees to Provide for the benefits to the members under the Scheme.

15. INCOME-TAX AND OTHER TAXES

(a) In any case where the Corporation or the Trustees are liable to account to the Income-Tax authorities for Income-Tax on any payment made under the Rules, the Corporation or the Trustees as the case may be shall deduct a sum equal to such tax from any such payment made and shall not be liable to the members for the sum so deducted.

(b) If the Gratuity Fund and Trust for any reason cease to be approved by the Commissioner of Income-Tax, the Trustees shall nevertheless remain liable to tax on any benefits paid to any members of his Nominee.

16. NOMINATION

(a) Every member shall make a nomination conferring on one or more persons the right to receive the benefits hereunder in the event of his death before the benefits become payable. Such a nomination shall be made according to the form given in the Appendix.

(b) If a member nominates more than one person under clause (a) above, he shall, in his nomination, specify the amount or share payable to each of the nominees in such manner as to cover the sole of the amount of gratuity that may be payable in the event of his death.

(c) Where a member has a family at the time of making a nomination, the nomination shall be in favour of one or more persons belonging to his family. Any nomination made by such member in favour of a person or persons not belonging to his family shall be invalid.

(d) If, at the time of making a nomination, the member has no family, the nomination may be in favour of any person or persons but if the member subsequently acquires a family, such nomination shall forthwith be deemed to be invalid and the member shall make a fresh nomination in favour of one or more persons belonging to his family.

(e) A nomination made by a member, at any time, be modified by him after giving a written notice to the Trustees of his intention of doing so. If the nominee predeceases the member the interest of the nominee shall revert to the member, who may thereupon make a fresh nomination.

(f) A nomination or its modification shall take effect to the extent it is valid on the date on which it is received by the Trustees.

(g) If a Nominee is not appointed and the member does not leave the family, then the benefits shall lapse to the Trust.

17. FOR THE PURPOSE OF THIS RULE “FAMILY” MEANS

(i) in the case of a male employee, himself, his wife, his children, whether married or unmarried, his dependent parents and the dependent parents of his wife and the widow and children of his predeceased son, if any;

(ii) in the case of a female employee, herself, her husband, her children, whether married or unmarried, her dependent parents and the dependent parents of her husband and the widow and children of her predeceased son, if any.

EXPLANATION: Where the personal law of an employee permits the adoption by him of a child any child lawfully adopted by him shall be deemed to be included in his family and where a child of an employee has been adopted by another person and such adoption is, under the personal law of the person making such adoption lawful, such child shall be deemed to be excluded from the family of the employee.

18. INTERPRETATION OF RULES

It shall be a condition of membership of the trust that on any point of interpretation of these Rules or any point relating to admission of new members and cessation of membership, the decision of the Trustees shall be final. If the decision has any bearing of the provisions of Part C of the Fourth Schedule of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 or the Rules made thereunder it shall be forthwith reported to the Commissioner of Income-Tax and if the Commissioner of Income-Tax as requires, the Trustees shall review the decision.

ICSI EMPLOYEES’ PENSION FUND TRUST RULES
(As amended upto 13th September, 2013)
ICSI EMPLOYEES PENSION FUND TRUST RULES

PART I

PRELIMINARY

1. SHORT TITLE AND COMMENCEMENT

(I) These Rules may be called the ICSI Employees Pension Fund Trust Rules, 1993 as amended from time to time.

(II) These Rules shall come into force w.e.f. first day of November 1993.

2. APPLICATION

These Rules shall apply to the eligible Employees of the Institute of Company Secretaries of India who are in service as on first day of January 1988.

3. DEFINITIONS

In these Rules unless excluded by or repugnant to the context:

(a) “The Rules” shall mean the rules herein contained and any amendment thereof for the time being in force.

(b) “Amendment” shall mean and include alteration, deletion, rescission, addition, change or variation.

(c) “Institute” shall mean the Institute of Company Secretaries of India constituted under the Company Secretaries Act, 1980.

(d) “Council” shall mean the Council of the Institute.

(m) [-----------------] 194

193 Substituted w.e.f. 01.04.2010 vide Circular No. 18/2010 dated 20.12.2010. Prior to substitution, rule 3(l) read as under:

[“Emoluments” shall mean the Basic Pay which an Employee was receiving immediately before his retirement or on the day of his death while in service or on termination of employment.]

194 Omitted w.e.f. 01.04.2010. Prior to its omission, it read as under:

[“Average Emoluments” shall mean average emoluments as determined with reference to the emoluments drawn by an Employee during the last ten months of his service.

Note 1 If an Employee, immediately before his/her retirement or death while in service, has been on leave for which salary is payable or having been suspended, had been reinstated without forfeiture of service, the emoluments which he would have drawn had he not been absent from duty or suspended, shall be taken into account for determining the average emoluments.

Note 2 Where an Employee immediately before his/her retirement or death while in service had proceeded on leave for which salary is payable after having held a higher appointment on probation, the benefit of emoluments drawn in such higher appointment shall be given only if it is certified that the employee would have continued to hold the higher appointment but for his proceeding on leave.

Note 3 If an Employee immediately before his retirement or death while in service had been absent from duty on extraordinary leave or had been under suspension the period whereof does not count as service, the emoluments which he draws immediately before proceeding on such leave or being placed under suspension shall be the emoluments for the purpose of this rule.

Note 4 If an Employee immediately before his retirement or death while in service, was on earned leave and earned an increment which was not withheld, such increment though not actually drawn shall form a
4. GENERAL CONDITIONS

(a) Regulation of claims to Pension: Any claim to pension shall be regulated by the provisions of these Rules in force at the time when an Employee retires or is discharged or is allowed to resign from service or dies, as the case may be.

(b) Pension subject to future good conduct: Future good conduct shall be an implied condition of every grant of pension and its continuance under these Rules.

(c) Right of Council to withhold or withdraw Pension: The Council reserves the right of withholding or withdrawing a pension or part thereof, whether permanently or for a specific period, and of ordering recovery from a pension of the whole or part of any pecuniary loss caused to the Institute, if in any departmental or judicial proceedings, the pensioner is found guilty of grave misconduct or convicted of a serious crime during the period of his/her service which could lead to dismissal of the Employee from the services of the Institute.

Provided further that where a part of pension is withheld or withdrawn, the amount of such pension shall not be reduced below the amount of [Rs.1800/- (Rupees Eighteen Hundred only) per month.]

5. QUALIFYING SERVICE

(a) Commencement of Qualifying Service: The qualifying service of an

Note 5 If during the last ten months of his service, an Employee had been on leave for which salary is payable or having been suspended had been reinstated without forfeiture of service, the emoluments which he would have drawn had he not been absent from duty or suspended, shall be taken into account for determining the average emoluments.

Note 6 If during the last ten months of his service, an employee had been on extra-ordinary leave or had been under suspension, the period whereof does not count as service, the aforesaid period of leave or suspension shall be disregarded in the calculation of average emoluments and equal period before the ten months shall be included.

Note 7 In the case of an Employee who was on earned leave during the last ten months of his service and earned an increment which was not withheld, such increment, though not actually drawn shall be included in the average emoluments.

195 Substituted w.e.f. 01.04.2010 vide Circular No. 18/2010 dated. 20.12.2010. Prior to its substitution, limit given in Rule 4(c) read as under:- [w.e.f. 01.11.1993, Rs. 160 (Rupees One Hundred Sixty only) per month w.e.f.14.05.1996,Rs. 400 (Rupees Four Hundred only) per month w.e.f. 01.04.1999, Rs. 640 (Rupees Six Hundred Forty only) per month]
Employee commences from the date he/she takes charge of the post in the Institute including the service rendered by such Employee with the dissolved company immediately before the commencement of the Company Secretaries Act, 1980 and the service is followed without interruption by permanent appointment in the same or another post.

(b) Conditions subject to which service qualifies

(i) The service of an Employee shall not qualify unless his/her duties and pay are regulated by the Council or under conditions determined by the Council.

(ii) For the purpose of sub-rule (i) the expression service means service in the Institute and paid by the Institute from its sources (Funds)

(c) Counting of qualifying service:

(i) On Probation: Service on probation against a post if followed by confirmation in the same or another post, shall qualify.

Adhoc service if followed by regular appointment without any break shall qualify.

(ii) As apprentice or casual: Service as an apprentice or casual shall not qualify for the purpose of “Qualifying Service”.

(iii) Periods spent on leave: All leave during service for which salary is payable and all extra-ordinary leave duly granted – (i) on medical certificate, (ii) due to inability of the Employee to join or re-join duty on account of civil commotion or (iii) for pursuing higher studies as may be specified by the Institute, shall count as qualifying service.

(iv) Periods spent on training: The period spent by an Employee under training if followed by appointment on to a regular post shall count as qualifying service.

(v) Periods of suspension: The period during which an Employee is held under suspension pending inquiry into conduct, shall count as qualifying service where, on conclusion of such enquiry, he/she has been fully exonerated or the suspension is held to be wholly unjustified. In other cases, the period of suspension shall not count unless the authority competent to pass orders under the service rules of the Institute, expressly declares at that time that it shall count. If an Employee dies while under suspension, the entire period of suspension shall count as qualifying service.

(vi) Periods of lay-off, strike and lock-out: The period of lay-off, strike and lock-out shall not count as qualifying service unless decided otherwise by the Council.

(d) Forfeiture of service on dismissal or removal: Dismissal or removal of an Employee from the service entails forfeiture of his/her past services.

(e) Counting of past service on reinstatement

(i) An Employee who is dismissed, removed or compulsorily retired from service, but is reinstated on appeal or review, is entitled to count his/her past service as qualifying service.

(ii) The period of interruption in service between the date of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement, as the case may be and the date of reinstatement and the period of suspension, if any, shall not count as qualifying service unless regularized as duty or leave by a specific order of the authority which passed the order of reinstatement.

(f) Effect of interruption in service

(1) An interruption in the service of an Employee entails forfeiture of his/her past service, except in the following cases:

(i) Authorised leave of absence

(ii) Unauthorized absence in continuation of authorized leave of absence so long as the absentee is allowed to join back his/her regular service

(iii) Suspension, where it is immediately followed by re-instatement, whether in the same or a different post, or where the Employee dies or is permitted to retire or is retired on attaining the age of superannuation while under suspension

(iv) The period of absence of an Employee between the date of dismissal/removal/ compulsory retirement and the date of reinstatement when the Employee is reinstated on appeal or review.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule(1), the appointing authority may, by order, commute retrospectively the periods of unauthorized absence as extra-ordinary leave but the period will not count as qualifying service.

(g) Weightage in qualifying service: [Clause (g) of rule 5 shall cease to operate effective from 01.04.2010]196

(h) Date of termination of Service

Service terminates:

(i) In the case of retirement on superannuation, on the afternoon of the last day of the month in which an Employee attains the age of [60 years]197

(ii) In the case of voluntary retirement, on the day prior to the date of retirement;

(iii) In the case of disablement, on the day prior to the date of relief on disablement. If disabled while on leave, on the date of expiry of that leave or extension of leave duly granted;

(iv) In the case of death of an Employee while in service, the date of retirement should be taken as the date following the date of death;

(v) In the case where an Employee has been granted extension of service, the date of retirement should be taken after the end of the period of extension; and

(vi) In the case of retirement after leave, on the last day of leave preparatory to retirement.

(vii) [Rounding of fraction of a year: Effective from 01.04.2010, in case of retirement/death while in service taking place, the fraction of a year in the qualifying service shall be reckoned in the following manner:

196 w.e.f. 01.04.2010 Rule 5(g) ceased to operate vide Circular No. 18/2010 dated 20.12.2010. Prior to its cessation, it read as under: [An employee may retire from service voluntarily at any time after completion of 20 years qualifying service or after attaining the age of 55 years. In both the cases, he is eligible for the addition to the qualifying service actually rendered by him, upto a maximum of five years subject to the condition that (i) the total qualifying service after allowing weightage should not exceed thirty three years; (ii) the number of years added should not take him beyond the date of superannuation.]

197 Substituted w.e.f. 29.10.1998, vide Office Order No. 76/98 dated 29.10.1998. Prior to its substitution, it read as ["58 years"]
6. CASES OF PENSIONS AND CONDITIONS COVERING THEIR GRANT

(a) Superannuation pension: A superannuation pension shall be granted to an Employee who has put in a minimum of 10 years qualifying service in the Institute and retires on his/her attaining the age of compulsory retirement.

(b) [Retiring Pension: Effective from 01.04.2010, a retiring pension shall be granted to an Employee who retires on his/her attaining the age of 55 years after completing at least 10 years of qualifying service or is retired in

The period of 30 years 3 months and 10 days will be reckoned as 30 ½ years (fraction of the year being not less than 3 months but less than 6 months taken as one half year) 3. The period of 30 years 9 months and 10 days will be reckoned as 31 years (fraction of the year being not less than 9 months taken as two half yearly periods, i.e., one year).]
advance of the age of compulsory retirement on completion of 20 years of qualifying service or on attaining the age of 55 years, whichever is earlier, or seeks voluntary retirement on completion of 20 years of qualifying service.]

(c) Disablement pension
(i) Disablement pension may be granted if an Employee retires from the service on account of any bodily or mental infirmity which permanently incapacitates him from the service. The requirement of minimum qualifying service shall not be applicable in such cases but the actual number of years of qualifying service at the time of relief on account of disablement will be taken for the purpose of pension.
(ii) An Employee applying for a disablement pension shall submit a medical certificate of incapacity from the medical authority as specified by the Institute.

7. REGULATION OF NOTICE FOR RETIREMENT

(a) At any time after an Employee has attained the age of 55 years or completed 20 years of qualifying service:

(i) he/she may retire from service, or

(ii) he/she may be required by the appointing authority to retire in the Institute’s interest.

Provided that

(1) an Employee shall give notice in writing to the appointing authority at least three months before the date on which he/she wishes to retire; and

(2) the appointing authority may also give a notice in writing to the Employee at least three months before the date on which he/she is required to retire in the Institute’s interest or three months pay and allowances in lieu of such notice.

Provided further that where an Employee giving notice under clause

Substituted w.e.f. 01.04.2010, vide Circular No. 18/2010 dated 20.12.2010. Prior to its substitution, Rule 6(b) read as under:— [Retiring Pension: A retiring pension shall be granted to an employee who retires on his attaining the age of 55 years after completing at least 10 years of qualifying service or is retired in advance of the age of compulsory retirement on completion of 33 years of qualifying service or seeks voluntary retirement on completion of 20 years of qualifying service, which shall be increased by a period not exceeding 5 years as applicable in the case of Central Government employees but the total qualifying service shall not exceed 33 years.]
(a) of the preceding proviso is under suspension, it shall be open to the appointing authority to withhold permission to such Employee to retire under this rule.

(b) The Employee referred to in clause (a) of the sub-rule (1) may make a request in writing to the appointing authority to accept notice of less than three months giving reasons therefor. On receipt of the request, the appointing authority may consider such request for the curtailment of the period of notice of three months on merits and if it is satisfied that the curtailment of the period of notice will not cause any administrative inconvenience, appointing authority may relax the requirement of notice of three months.

(c) An Employee who has elected to retire under this rule and has given the necessary intimation to that effect to the appointing authority, shall be precluded from withdrawing his/her election subsequently except with the specific approval of such authority:

Provided that the request for withdrawal shall be within the intended date of his/her retirement.

8. AMOUNT OF PENSION AND PROCEDURES FOR DETERMINATION AND PAYMENT OF AMOUNT OF PENSION

(a) [Effective from 01.04.2010, the amount of pension shall be determined @ 25% of the emoluments last drawn subject to a maximum of Rs. 22500 (Rupees Twenty Two Thousand Five Hundred only) per month or such higher amount as may be determined by the Council from time to time excluding dearness relief, as applicable.

In the case of pensioners in receipt of pension as on 31-12-2005, the basic pension shall be re-fixed at 25% of the minimum of pay in the pay band plus grade pay corresponding to the pre-revised pay scale from which the pensioner had retired.

Provided that the pension payable to the existing pensioners i.e. prior to the revision in the “Employees Pension Fund Trust Rules” effective from 01.04.2010 shall be protected, i.e., in no case the amount of the existing pension including dearness relief of any pensioner shall be reduced.] 200

MISCELLANEOUS

12. INTERPRETATION

Substituted w.e.f. 01.04.2010 vide Circular No. 18/2010 dated 20.12.2010. Prior to its substitution, Rule 9 read as under:

[Family Pension: In the case of death of an employee either in service or after retirement, the pension shall be payable to the spouse of the Employee for a maximum period of 12 years from the date of death of the employee or the date of superannuation, whichever is earlier. In case of remarriage of the spouse, the pension will be payable only up to the date of such remarriage. The amount of family pension will be restricted to 50% of the amount of pension (including dearness relief) last drawn by the employee or eligible to draw before his/her death. The minimum amount of pension (including dearness relief) shall be Rs. 160/- (Rupees One Hundred Sixty only) per month. The requirement of minimum qualifying service shall not be applicable in the case of death of an employee while in service.]^207

Revised w.e.f. 14.05.1996 – Rs. 400/- (Rupees Four Hundred only) per month vide Office Order No. 94/97 dated 08.08.1997.

Revised w.e.f 01.04.1999 – Rs. 640/- (Rupees Six Hundred & Forty only) per month vide Circular No. 12/99 dated 07.10.1999].
In all cases of doubts, clarifications, interpretations, etc. the pension rules as applicable to the Central Government Employees may be taken into account as guidelines and made applicable as notified by the Institute.

13. POWER TO RELAX

Where the operation of any of these rules causes undue hardship in any particular case, the Council shall be empowered to relax provisions to such extent and subject to such exceptions and conditions as it may consider necessary for dealing with the case in a just and equitable manner.

14. REPEAL AND SAVING

These Rules can be amended and altered at any time by the Council with specific stipulation regarding applicability to Employees before and after such amendments.

15. DRAWAL OF PENSION FROM OTHER SOURCES

An Employee who is in receipt of pension from his/her previous employer before joining the Institute may continue to receive the same and his/her past service will not qualify for pension in the Institute. His/her eligibility to pension under these Rules will be governed taking into account the period of service rendered in the Institute.

16. COMMUTATION OF PENSION

(a) A Pensioner shall be eligible to commute his/her pension after medical examination, if applicable for a lumpsum payment a fraction not exceeding \([40\%]\)\(^{208}\) of his/her monthly pension (excluding dearness relief). While sending application in the prescribed proforma for commutation of pension, the pensioner should indicate the portion of pension which he/she desires to commute. The Employee/Pensioner against whom departmental/judicial proceedings are pending shall not be eligible for commutation. If fraction of pension to be commuted results in fraction of a Rupee, such fraction will be ignored for the purpose of commutation. Family Pension cannot be commuted.

(b) Medical Examination is not required for commutation

\(^{208}\) [Revised w.e.f. 01.04.1999 vide Circular No. 12/99 dated 07.10.1999 from one-third].
(i) where the applicant is authorized a superannuation/retiring pension and he/she applies for commutation before the expiry of one year from the date of his/her retirement;

(ii) where a pensioner is granted pension on finalization of departmental/judicial proceedings and he/she applies for commutation before the expiry of one year from the date of his/her retirement.

(c) Medical examination by appropriate medical authority as may be decided by the Institute is required for commutation, where

(i) an Employee retires on disablement pension; or
(ii) The category of pensioners referred to in sub-rule (b) above, apply for commutation after one year from the date of their retirement.

(d) Commutation becomes absolute and payable on

(i) the date following the date of retirement, where an Employee retiring on superannuation/voluntary retirement submits an application for commutation of monthly pension before the date of retirement. However, the commuted value of pension will not be paid if he/she dies before the date of superannuation/retirement or forfeits claim to pension before such date.

(ii) the date on which the application for commutation of pension is received in the Institute in the case of pensioners falling under sub-rule (b) above.

(iii) the date on which the medical authority signs the medical report in the case of pensioners falling under sub-rule (c) above.

(e) The lumpsum payable on commutation will be calculated and adopted by an office order of the Institute after taking into account the basis of the formula and the Table of Values prescribed and as applicable to the Central Government Employees from time to time and in force on the date on which commutation becomes absolute. Existing Value Table annexed. The amount of commuted value of pension as finally calculated will be rounded off to the next higher Rupee.

(f) The reduction in the amount of monthly pension on account of commutation will become operative from the date of release of payment of the commuted value of pension to the applicant.

(g) The applicant is required to make a nomination in the prescribed form along with the application for commutation, conferring on one or more persons the right to receive the commuted value of pension, in case he/she dies without the commuted value on or after the date on which the commutation become absolute. If there is no such nomination, the commuted value is payable to his/her legal heirs as may be decided by the Institute.

(h) Dearness Relief as admissible to the Pensioner will be calculated on the original amount of monthly pension even after commutation of a portion of the pension.

(i) Pensioners are entitled to have the commuted portion of pension restored on the expiry of 15 years from the date of retirement.

17. ALIVE CERTIFICATE

Pensioners/Family Pensioners are required to furnish a certificate as per format given in APPENDIX I, as on 1st April of every year, latest by 10th April.

PART II

ADMINISTRATION

1. (a) The number of Trustees shall not be less than three nor more than five. At any meeting of the Trust, two Trustees present in person shall form a quorum.

(b) A Trustee may retire at any time, on giving notice in writing to other Trustees on his desire to do so, and the office of a Trustee shall be vacated if a Trustee shall permanently leave India, or by reason of his/her illness or infirmity shall, in the opinion of the other Trustees, become incompetent or incapable of acting. It a Trustee is in employment of the Institute, his/her trusteeship will cease on the cessation of his/her services with the Institute.

(c) The power of appointing a new Trustee shall be vested in the Institute which shall, subject to the provision of sub-rule (a) hereof be entitled to appoint new Trustees either in addition to the existing Trustees or in place of the Trustees who shall have died, vacated office or retired, for the purpose of facilitating the administration of the Fund. Likewise, the Institute shall have the power to remove the existing Trustee or Trustees and appoint new Trustee or Trustees. On every such appointment of a new Trustee or Trustees, the funds of the Fund shall, ipso facto, vest in the continuing and the new Trustee or Trustees.
(d) The Chairman of the meeting of the Trustees shall be nominated by the Institute from amongst the Trustees. If at any meeting, the Chairman be not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, the Trustees present may choose one of their Members to be the Chairman of the meeting.

(e) The Trustees may, subject to the provisions of the Rules, meet for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings and proceedings and make such other regulations for the transaction of the business of the Fund as they shall think fit.

(f) Questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes, each Trustee present being entitled to one vote and in case of equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

(g) A resolution in writing signed by a majority of the Trustees for the time being in India, being not less than two shall be as valid and effective as a resolution passed at a meeting of the Trust duly convened and held.

(h) The Trustees may delegate any of their powers to one of the Trustees or to a Committee consisting of such Members of their body as they shall think fit. Any Trustee so appointed or any committee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any regulations that may be imposed upon such Trustee or such committee by the Trustees.

2. (a) The Trustees shall decide all differences or disputes which may arise under the Rules either as to the interpretation thereof or as to the rights and obligations of the Institute and of the beneficiaries and the decision of the Trustees shall, in all cases, be final and binding on all parties concerned PROVIDED ALWAYS where such difference or dispute related to Income Tax matter, it shall be referred to the Commissioner and his/her decision shall be final.

(b) Right of Trustees to withhold or withdraw pension: The Trustees reserve the right of withholding or withdrawing a pension or part thereof, whether permanently / or for a specified period, and of ordering recovery from a pension of the whole or part of any pecuniary loss caused to the Institute, if in any departmental or judicial proceedings, the Pensioner is found guilty of grave misconduct or convicted of a serious crime during the period of his/her service which could lead to dismissal of the Employees from the services of the Institute.

Provided further that where a part of pension is withheld or withdrawn, the amount of such pension shall not be reduced below the amount of [Rs. 1800/- (Rupees One Thousand Eight Hundred only) per month.]\(^{209}\)

3. (a) The Trustees shall have power to appoint any person or persons with the requisite qualifications to act as the Actuary, the Secretary or Secretaries or the Manager or Managers or Registrars of the Fund at such remuneration and on such terms and conditions and with such powers as the Trustees may think fit. The Trustees may also employ any person or persons to do any legal, accounting, actuarial or other work which they may consider necessary or expedient in connection with the management of the Fund or the assets thereof.

(b) All cheques and other negotiable or transferable instruments and all receipts for moneys paid to the Fund shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed as the case may be, in such manner as the Trustees shall from time to time by resolution determine.

(c) The Trustees may hold the investments of the Fund in the name of the Fund or in the names of any two of them on behalf of the Trustees or in the name of a nominee whether a bank, a financial house or a trust company, as the Trustees may from time to time determine. Application for purchase of any investment of the Fund (including policies of annuity) may be made by one or more of the Trustees or by any of their nominee.

4. The Trustees shall not at any time be made liable for any more money than what may actually come into their own hands or for the failure of any bank, company or firm or for the dishonesty of any clerk, servant or attorney or other persons with whom any part of the trust property may be deposited or be placed in charge or for anything other than their own immediate and respective wilful acts, deeds and defaults. Notwithstanding anything contained in these presents, the Trustees shall be at liberty to utilize any part of the funds of the Fund in reimbursing them for all sums of money, costs, charges or damages suffered or borne by them in accordance with the administration of the Fund regardless of the insufficiency of the total funds for the purpose of meeting all obligations of the Trustees and the Trustees shall be entitled to be indemnified by the Institute against all proceedings, costs and expenses occasioned by any claim in connection with the Fund not arising from their negligence or fraud.

5. (a) The Trustees shall open with any scheduled bank or banks as they may \(^{209}\) Substituted w.e.f. 01.04.2010 vide Circular No. 18/2010 dated 20.12.2010, prior to its substitution, limits were as under: [w.e.f 01.11.1993 Rs. 160 (Rupees One Hundred Sixty only) per month w.e.f. 14.05.1996 Rs. 400 (Rupees Four Hundred only) per month w.e.f. 01.04.1999 Rs. 640 (Rupees Six Hundred Forty only) per month] from time to time determine a Saving Bank Account or accounts and place to the credit of such account or accounts, all money/s from time to time received by the Trustees for the purpose of the Fund.

(b) The moneys of the Fund shall be dealt with in the manner prescribed in Rule 85 of the Income Tax Rules, 1962 or in any other manner which may from time to time be authorized by the Central Board of Direct Taxes.

(c) The Trustees shall have power to vary or transpose the investments for the time being of the Fund or others of the nature authorized in sub-rule (b) hereof.

(d) The Trustees may, when necessary, raise such sum or sums of money as may be required for the purpose of the Fund by sale or advance or advances against the securities held by them or a sufficient part thereof or otherwise.

PART III
CONTRIBUTIONS

1. The Institute shall pay to the Trustees in respect of each Employee, an initial or lump sum contribution as may be certified by the Actuary of the Fund and also in such installments as may be certified by the Actuary, in respect of the past service of the Employee subject to the provisions of the Rule 88 of the Income Tax Rules 1962 and to any condition that the Central Board of Direct Taxes may specify in that behalf.

2. The Institute shall pay to the Trustees in respect of each Employee an ordinary annual contribution as may be certified by the Actuary subject to the provisions of Rule 87 of the Income-Tax Rules, 1962. The payment can be made either annually or in periodic installments.

PART IV
ACCOUNTS

1. The Accounts of the Fund shall be maintained in India and shall contain such particulars as the Trustees may think proper and as are required by law. As soon as possible after the 31st day of March in each year, the Trustees shall take a general account of the assets and liabilities of the Fund and shall prepare a Balance Sheet and a Revenue Account showing the income and expenditure dealings and transactions during the year terminating on such 31st March in such form as may be considered suitable by the Trustees. The Trustees will ascertain and record the market value, as on the said date of the total investments or securities of the Fund. In the case of any investment or security not being a dated security, or an investment or securities or an insurance or annuity policy for which the market value is not available, the Trustees shall incorporate these in the accounts in such manner and at such value as they shall at their absolute discretion, consider proper and equitable. The total appreciation and depreciation of the securities so ascertained and any profit or loss incurred on the sale of securities, including surrender or encashment of policies of assurance or annuities all interest accrued or received and all expenses of management that may be borne by the Trustees will be credited or debited as the case may be to the Revenue Account.

2. The balance of the Revenue Account as well as the contributions credited to an account to be called “The Members Contribution Account” representing the total contribution made in respect of individual members shall, at the end of the year, be transferred to an account hereinafter referred to as the Benefit Account. All benefits paid shall be debited to the Benefit Account.

3. For the purpose of auditing the Accounts of the Fund, the Trustees shall appoint a Chartered Accountant or a firm of Chartered Accountants who shall have access to all the books, papers, vouchers and documents connected with the Fund and who shall in writing report to the Trustees on the annual accounts. The Trustees shall ensure that the Annual Accounts of the Fund prepared on 31st March every year are audited and placed in the Trustees meeting on or before 30th September every year.

PART V
PURCHASE OF ANNUITIES

The Trustees may for the purpose of providing the pensions for the Employees pursuant to the Rules, purchase annuities from the Life Insurance Corporation of India at the time of retirement or death.

a) The ICSI Employees New Pension Fund Trust shall invest the contributions in Tier-I and Tier-II Pensions accounts in fixed income instruments and equities.

b) The Trust shall devise and circulate to the Members covered by the rules three optional Schemes of investment, namely, A, B, & C having different ratios of investment in fixed income instruments and equities.
c) The Investment of the funds in individual accounts shall be made in the fixed income instruments and equities on the basis of the option exercised by each Member.

d) The option for investment in terms of Schemes A, B or C shall be exercised by the Member at the time of his appointment and thereafter in April each year. The Member shall not be permitted to change his option at any time during the year.

e) The option exercised by the Member shall be applicable only to the investments made after the exercise of the option. The investments made earlier shall not be disturbed and shall continue to be made in accordance with the option already exercised.

f) The Trust may avail of the services of the Pension Fund Regulatory and Development Authority (PFRDA) or the Fund Manager or any other agency for the purposes of the making investment of Pension Funds in Tier-I and Tier-II Account.

9. EXIT FROM THE NEW PENSION SCHEME:

a) A Member can exit from the Pension Fund Tier-I of the Scheme on attaining the age of superannuation as may be prescribed in “The Institute of Company Secretaries of India Service Rules, 1979”. At exit it would be mandatory for the Member to invest 40% of the pension wealth to purchase an annuity from an insurance company which is regulated by Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority (IRDA), to provide for pension for the lifetime of the employee and his/her family.

b) In case the Member leave the Scheme before attaining the age of superannuation on account of death, resignation, termination or for any other reasons, it would be mandatory for the employee to invest 80% of the pension wealth to purchase an annuity from an insurance company which is regulated by Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority (IRDA), to provide for pension for the lifetime of the employee and his/her family.

c) The employee shall be free to withdraw the balance 60% or 20%, as the case may be, after leaving mandatory amount of 40% or 80% in terms of Rules (a) and (b) of Rule 9, which he may utilize in any manner. The amount so withdrawn shall not constitute pension investment and would attract no special tax treatment.
d) An employee shall be free to withdraw from Tier-II Account part or all of his money at any time after making an application to the Trust.

10. MISCELLANEOUS:

a) Till the monies contributed to the 'ICSI Employees New Pension Fund Trust - under Scheme, Tier-I and Tier-II are invested as provided in these Rules, the amount representing the contributions made by the employees and the matching contributions made by the Institute shall be kept by the Trust in Special Account and interest at the rate as may be prescribed by the Central Government under the New Pension Scheme shall be credited to the Pension wealth.

b) The Institute shall make deductions of the contributions of the employees in respect of mandatory Tier-I of the Scheme from their pay and remit the same to the Trust along with matching contributions of the Institute.

c) The Institute shall also make deductions of the contribution of the employees in respect of Optional Tier-II of the Scheme and shall remit the same to the Trust.

11. ADMINISTRATION AND CONTROL OF THE TRUST

The Trust hereby constituted shall vest in the Trustees and their successors in office irrevocably in Trust in accordance with the Deed of Trust dated 6th March, 2009. The Fund shall be held and managed by the Trustees for the time being in accordance with these Regulations. The provisions of Income Tax Act, 1961 and the Rules made under Income-tax Rules, 1962 in respect of Recognized Funds shall prevail and apply hereto. In case of any discrepancy or repugnance between the said provisions and Rules and these Regulations, except for the purposes of amendment of these regulations, the majority of Trustees may exercise all the powers of the Trustees. Any resolution passed by circulation and signed by all the Trustees for the time being in India shall be as valid and effective as a resolution duly passed at a regularly convened meeting of the Trustees. All matters relating to or connected with the Fund, the management or the administration and control thereof or the rights and obligations of the Members and their heirs, executors, legal representatives and nominees hereunder, shall be vested in Trustees and their, decision thereon shall be final and binding on the Employers and Members and their heirs, executors, legal representatives and nominees.
12. MAINTENANCE OF THE FUND TRUST

All moneys of the New Pension Fund Trust shall be kept deposited and / or invested in the manner prescribed in the Rules in the name of the “ICSI Employees New Pension Fund Trust” and shall be dealt with in accordance with these Rules and such accounts shall be operated on the authority and signature of any two Trustees.

13. ANNUAL STATEMENT TO EACH MEMBER

A Statement of Account of each member as on 31st March of each year shall be prepared as in Form “B” and provided to the member who will certify in writing that the amount shown therein is correct.

14. ABSTRACT OF INDIVIDUAL ACCOUNTS

An abstract for the year ended 31st March of each year of the individual account of each Member participating in the New Pension Fund in respect of whom a return is required to be furnished in terms of Rules framed, if any, under Income-Tax Rules, 1962, shall be furnished by the Trustees to the Income-Tax Officer specified in this regard each year.

15. NOMINATIONS

(1) Each member shall make a nomination in writing as in Form “C” conferring the right on his/her nominee or nominees to receive the amount that may stand to his credit in the fund in the event of his death, before that amount becomes payable, or having become payable, has not been paid.

(2) If a member nominates more than one person under sub-rule (1), he/she shall, in his/her nomination, specify the amount or share payable to each of the nominees in such a manner as to cover the whole of the amount that may stand to his credit in the Trust.

(3) Where a member has a family at the time of making a nomination, the nomination shall be in favour of one or more persons belonging to his/her family. Any nomination made by such member in favour of a person not belonging to his family shall be invalid.
(4) If at the time of making a nomination, the member has no family, the nomination may be made in favour of any person or persons but if the member subsequently acquires a family, such nomination shall forthwith be deemed to be invalid and the member shall make a fresh nomination in favour of one or more persons belonging to his/her family.

(5) A nomination made by a member may, at any time, be modified by him after giving a written notice to the Trustees of his intention of doing so in Form "D". Such notice will automatically cancel the previous nomination.

(6) If the nominee predeceases the member, the interest of the nominee shall revert to the member who shall thereupon make a fresh nomination in respect of such interest.

(7) A nomination or its modification shall take effect to the extent that it is valid on the date on which it is received by the Trustees.

16. ANNUAL ACCOUNTS

The accounts of the ICSI Employees Pension Fund Trust shall be made up yearly as on 31st March.

17. ASSIGNMENT AND TRANSFER OF MEMBERS INTEREST IN THE TRUST

(1) The amount standing to the credit of any member in the Fund shall not in any way be capable of being assigned or charged and shall not be liable to attachment under any decree or order of any Court in respect of any debt or liability incurred by the member and neither the official assignee appointed under the Presidency-Towns Insolvency Act, 1909, nor any receiver appointed under the Provincial Insolvency Act, 1920, shall be entitled to, or have any claim on any such amount.

(2) Any amount standing to the credit of a member in the Trust at the time of his death and payable to his nominee under the rules of the Trust shall, subject to any deduction authorized by the said rules, vest in the nominee and shall be free from any debt or other liability incurred by the deceased or the nominee before the death of the member.
18. INDEMNIFICATION OF TRUSTEES

The Institute shall hold every Trustee indemnified against all proceedings, costs and expenses occasioned by any claim in connection with the Fund not arising from his negligence or fraud.

19. CLOSING OF THE FUND

The Trust shall not be closed except in the case of the Institute of Company Secretaries of India being wound up.

20. ISSUE OF CERTIFICATE RELATING TO BALANCE AMOUNT

In all cases wherein a certificate shall be required of the amount of the balance standing in the books of the Trust to the credit of a deceased member for the purpose of obtaining probate or letters of administration or for any other purpose such certificate shall inter alia show whether there is any nomination or its modification which shall take effect to the extent there it was valid on the date it was received by the Trustees.

21. POWER TO MAKE NEW RULES

(1) All matters or procedure and all ancillary matters not herein specifically provided for and requiring the framing of rules shall be regulated by such rules as the Trustees may from time to time make in that behalf, with the approval of the Council or Executive Committee of the Institute.

(2) The Trustees shall have power at all times, subject to the approval of the Council or Executive Committee and the Income Tax authority, if required, to alter any of the regulations contained in these presents for the time being relating to the Fund and make new rules in modification or substitution of the rules for the time being in force.

(3) While framing rules or altering them, regard shall be had to the following:

(i) They shall always be consistent with provisions of Income-Tax Act, 1961 and rules made thereunder.

(ii) They shall always be consistent with the provision of PFRDA
(iii) They shall not affect the irrevocable nature of the Trust or make the property or income of the Fund in any case or under any circumstance revert to the Institute.

(iv) They shall not have retrospective effect so as to affect adversely the rights existing on the date of alteration in respect of the sums then at the credit of the member’s accounts.

(v) No rules, or any modification thereof, shall take effect, unless they have been approved by the Income Tax authority having jurisdiction over the fund.

22. SAVINGS:

The Institute may, at its option, defer the provisions relating to Tier-II of the Scheme, for such time as it may consider necessary till the arrangements are made.
