Company Secretary is a versatile genius in anything on corporate law is. And now time has come to prove his mettle again as MCA has made a paradigm change in Companies Act 2013. It is only a CS professional who is soaked in Companies Act can appraise the changes made therein to enable corporate entities to take abundant precaution while carrying out any transaction. Let’s take an oath to achieve excellence in rendering advisory services to the board and corporates. Having the beacon in our hands will always enable us to lead the way... whatsoever the circumstances be!!! In this backdrop, Southern India Regional Council of the Institute of Company Secretaries of India is organising the 39th Regional Conference at Alleppy, Kerala on 18-19 July 2014 to facilitate our members to be global leaders in promoting good corporate governance.

Conference Sub-themes
1. Governance : Not a tick-box
2. Related “as if they are unrelated” Transactions
3. New Thinking, New Possibilities...
4. Also- Ran to Podium finish
