Limit on number of Directorships

- As Independent Director (if he is not WTD in any listed co.) -- maximum seven listed cos.

- As Independent Director (if he is WTD in any listed co.) -- maximum three listed cos.

The restriction on no. of Directorships as Independent in listed companies is on Whole-time Director and not on MD. We have to interpret it strictly because – MD and WTD terms are distinct.

Section 165 of the Cos. Act, 2013 provides maximum number of directorships – 20 companies (including alternate directorships) out of which not more than 10 can be public companies.
Maximum Tenure of Independent Directors (ID) -

- An Independent Director shall hold office for a term up to five consecutive years on the Board of a Company and shall be eligible for re-appointment for another term of up to 5 consecutive years on passing of a special resolution by the Company.

- Provided that a person who has already served as an ID for five years or more in a company as on October 1, 2014 shall be eligible for re-appointment, on completion of his present term, for one more term of up to five years only.

- Provided further that an ID, who completes his above mentioned term shall be eligible for appointment as ID in the company only after the expiration of three years of ceasing to be an ID in the company.

This is broadly in line with Section 149 of the Cos. Act, 2013.

However, as per Cos. Act two tenures of five years each can be taken by an independent director w.e.f. 1st April 2014. Any tenure of an ID on the date of commencement of this Act shall not be counted as a term.
Formal letter of appointment to Independent Director

The Company shall issue a formal letter of appointment to ID in the manner as provided in the Companies Act, 2013.

The letter of appointment along with the detailed profile of ID shall be disclosed on the websites of the company and the Stock Exchanges not later than one working day from the date of such appointment.

This is to align with the Schedule IV of the Cos. Act, 2013 which provides the contents of the appointment letter of ID also.

Cos. Act - posting of the terms and conditions of appointment of ID on the website, which shall also be open for inspection at the Regd. Office by any member.

Contd…
Board shall periodically review compliance reports of all laws applicable to the company, prepared by the company as well as steps taken by the company to rectify instances of non-compliances.

- Time for filling in vacancy in Board for ID

  Vacancy in the office of ID – to be filled not later than the immediate next Board Meeting or three months from the date of such vacancy, which ever is later. (earlier it was 180 days), unless the minimum No. of IDs are already on the Board.

  The Companies Act, 2013 provides for a time line of 180 days, which is applicable to non-listed cos.

- Succession Plan

  The Board shall satisfy itself that plans are in place for orderly succession for appointments to the Board and to senior management.

  This is a new requirement.
Code of Conduct

Board shall lay down a code of conduct for all Board members and senior management of the company. The code of conduct shall be posted on the website of the company.

All Board members and senior management personnel shall affirm compliance with the code on an annual basis. The Annual Report of the company shall contain a declaration to this effect signed by the CEO.

The Code of Conduct shall suitably incorporate the duties of IDs as laid down in the Companies Act, 2013.

This is to align with Schedule IV of the Cos. Act, 2013.
Liability of ID

For the first time - it has been clarified that an independent director shall be held liable, only in respect of such acts of omission or commission by a company which had occurred with his knowledge, attributable through Board processes, and with his consent or connivance or where he had not acted diligently with respect of the provisions contained in the Listing Agreement.

Similar provision also in the Cos. Act, 2013.
Compulsory whistle blower mechanism.

The Company shall establish a Vigil Mechanism for directors and employees to report concerns about unethical behaviour, actual or suspected fraud or violation of the company’s code of conduct or ethical policy.

The mechanism should also provide for adequate safeguard against victimization of director(s)/ employee(s) who avail of the mechanism and also provide for direct access to the Chairman of the Audit Committee in exceptional cases.

The details of establishment of vigil mechanism shall be disclosed by the company on its website and in the Board’s Report.

Similar requirement u/s 177(9) of the Cos Act, 2013 for listed companies to establish a Vigil Mechanism for Directors and Employees to report genuine concerns.
