“Financial Consumer Protection”
Agenda for Inclusive Growth

Wednesday, 24th July, 2013
Hotel Royal Plaza, New Delhi

Dear Professional Colleagues,

For the development of any nation or economy, financial services play a key role and the growth of the financial sector largely depends upon confidence of users / consumers in their fairness, transparency, accountability, responsiveness, accessibility and adaptability. The need for consumer protection arises from an imbalance of power, information and resources between consumers and their financial service providers.

The global financial crisis highlighted the need for more effective financial consumer protection measures as consumers face more sophisticated and complex financial markets. The availability of information has grown both in quantity and complexity and the pace of change, in terms of new product developments, product innovations, and technological advances, has increased significantly.

To address the many aspects & emerging issues related to financial consumer protection, ASSOCHAM is organizing a National Seminar on Financial Consumer Protection – Agenda for Inclusive Growth on 24th July 2013 at New Delhi.

We are pleased to inform that ICSI is associated as Academic Partner for the Seminar. Members of ICSI participating in the Seminar would be entitled to Four Programme Credit Hours. The participation fee for ICSI Members is Rs. 1500/- per delegate as against normal fee of Rs. 3,000/- per delegate.
