Convening a General Meeting

Who has the Authority:

➢ The Board of Directors

A General Meeting, whether annual or extra-ordinary general meeting shall be convened under the authority of the Board.

No Director or the Secretary or the Manager or any other Officer of the company has power to convene a General Meeting on his own.
Convening a General Meeting

The Board shall, on the requisition of members, call an EGM of the Company.

If Board fails, the requisitionists may themselves call and hold the meeting.

Such requisition shall not pertain to any item of business that is required to be transacted mandatorily through postal ballot.
Convening a General Meeting

• Notice for convening the meeting shall be given to every member of company and such other persons entitled to such notice.

• Notice shall be sent - by hand /ordinary post /speed post /registered post/ courier /facsimile /e-mail or by any other electronic means. (certain exceptions)

• A Member can, upon payment of such fee as determined by company at AGM, request for a particular mode of delivery of notice.
Q. Can a General Meeting be convened on a public holiday or on a Sunday?

Yes. General Meetings may be convened on a Public Holiday or on a Sunday, unless such day happens to be a National Holiday.

Q. Why to convene an extraordinary general meeting called by the requisitionists only on a working day?

Explanation to Rule 17(2) of Companies (Management and Administration) Rules, 2014 prescribes that an Extraordinary General Meeting called by the requisitionists shall be convened only on a working day. Para 1.2.4 of SS-2 is in line with the same.
Mode of Issuing Notice

• Meeting shall be called during business hours (9am-6pm).

• A Meeting call be requisitionists shall be convened only on a working day.
Q. What is the manner of service of Notice of General Meetings to Corporate Members?

Section 20(1) of the Act provides that a document may be served on a company at the registered office of the company. Therefore, Notice of general meetings may be served to a corporate member at its registered office.

Q. Is Notice of general meetings required to be given to preference shareholders?

Considering that Preference Shareholders are Members of the company, Notice of general meetings should also be given to them.
Q. Is it mandatory for companies to issue the notice of general meetings to all Directors and Auditors?

Yes, it is mandatory for all companies to issue notice of general meetings to all the Directors and the Auditors of the company. This is in line with Section 101(3) of the Act. In addition, it should also be given to Secretarial Auditor and Debenture Trustee, if any, as per Para 1.2.1 of SS-2.

Q. Para 1.2.1 of SS-2 requires Notice in writing of every Meeting of the company to be given, wherever applicable or so required, to other specified persons. Who are the other specified persons to whom Notice should be given?

In addition to giving Notice to persons specified in Para 1.2.1 of SS-2, Court may direct issuance of Notice to some other persons such as Court-appointed Chairman or observers or persons whose entitlement is under challenge.
• Contents of Notice:
  – day, date, time and full address of the venue of the Meeting including route map and prominent land mark for easy location
  – nature of the Meeting;
  – business to be transacted

Q. Is the requirement of providing the route map of venue relevant for closely held companies?

This is a good practice benefitting the shareholders. Providing a route map and prominent landmark would facilitate the Shareholders of companies to attend the Meeting. However if it is a very closed company(say of Husband and wife) the route map may not be given.
Q. Is a company required to ascertain from the Members every year whether they wish to receive documents by e-mail?

In terms of Rule 18 of the Companies (Management and Administration) Rules, 2014, a company is required to provide an opportunity at least once in a financial year, for registration of e-mail addresses, only to those members who have not got their email id recorded earlier with the company or with the depository.

However, as a measure of good corporate governance, Notice of the Annual General Meeting may contain a Note in this regard.
Q. Whether the proof of sending of the Notice of General Meeting is required to be maintained? If so, for how long should it be preserved?

This should be preserved in good order in physical or electronic form for as long as they remain current or for eight financial years, whichever is later and may be destroyed thereafter with the approval of the Board.

Q. Is it mandatory for all the companies to have a website and host the Notice on that website?

Under SS-2, it is not mandatory for the companies to have a website. But if a company has a website, the Notice, results of voting etc. is required to be hosted on the website.
Sending of Notice

• Notice to be given at least 21 clear days in advance of the Meeting.

• May be given at a shorter period of time if consent in writing is given, by physical or electronic means, by not less than 95 per cent of the Members entitled to vote at such Meeting.

Q. Can the consent for shorter notice be handed over at the venue of the meeting?

Such consent may be given at any time prior to the Meeting. A person holding a specific power of attorney may sign the consent, if such consent is sought at the Meeting, as he is deemed to be a Member personally present.
Sending of Notice

Q. Is it mandatory to send notice to all members, if requisite consent from shareholders holding 95% of the total voting power is obtained for meeting at Shorter Notice?

The requirement of giving Notice of the Meeting to all the Members has still to be fulfilled and Notice has to be sent to all the Members including to those who did not join the consent for shorter Notice.

Q. Can an AGM Notice be approved by the Board by means of resolution by circulation.

There is no such restriction on approving the notice of AGM in a Board meeting by way of resolution by circulation.
Q. Can Notice of General Meeting be amended?

Any amendment to the Notice, including the addition of any item of business, can be made provided the Notice of amendment is given to all persons entitled to receive the notice of the meeting at least twenty one clear days before the meeting.

• Q. Can items of business not specified in Notice be taken up at the Meeting?

A Resolution shall be valid only if it is passed in respect of an item of business contained in the Notice convening the Meeting or it is specifically permitted under the Act.
Q. Can AGM or EGM be held in any part of the world?

No. As per Section 96 of the Companies Act, 2013 and Para 1.2.4 of SS-1, AGM is required to be held either at the registered office of the company or at some other place within the city, town or village in which the registered office of the company is situated.

In terms of Explanation to Rule 18 of the Companies (Management and Administration) Rules, 2014 and Para 1.2.4 of SS-2, EGM is required to be held at any place within India.
Quorum

Q. Is presence of quorum required throughout the meeting?

Quorum shall be present not only at the time of commencement of the meeting but also while transacting each business.

A Member not entitled to vote on any particular item of business being a related party, if present, shall be counted for the purpose of Quorum.

One person can be authorised representative of more than one body corporate. In such a case, he is treated as more than one member present in person for the purpose of Quorum.
Quorum

Q. ABC Ltd. (a public company) having 800 members convened a general meeting upon due notice, however only two members were personally present at the meeting, one of whom is authorised representative of 5 bodies corporate. Is this valid quorum for meeting?

Yes. If two or more corporate bodies who are members of a company are represented by a single individual, each of the bodies corporate will be treated as personally present through that individual representing it.

An authorised representative of five bodies corporate cannot form a Quorum by himself but can do so if at least one more Member is personally present.
Q. Are proxies to be excluded for determining the Quorum even in case of private companies?

In terms of MCA’s Notification No. G.S.R. 464(E) dated 5th June, 2015, Sections 101 to 107 and Section 109 of the Act relating to meetings shall apply to a private limited company, unless otherwise specified in respective sections or the Articles of the said company prescribe otherwise.
Presence of Directors and Auditors

Q. Whether directors are mandatorily required to attend all general meetings?

All Directors are expected to attend the General Meetings of the company since all are equally responsible for the actions of the company. In the event of their inability to attend, Chairman should explain their absence.

Q. If a Secretarial Auditor has signed more than two secretarial audits and those companies conducts AGM's at different places at same time. In such case how can it be possible for the Secretarial Auditors to attend those AGM's?

As per SS- 4.3 The auditors may attend the meeting through their authorised representatives. The authorised representative who attends the General Meeting of the Company shall also be qualified to be a secretarial auditor.
Q. Which Secretarial Auditor is required to attend the AGM – the one for the last financial year whose Secretarial Audit Report has been annexed to the Board’s Report or the one appointed for the current financial year in which AGM is being held?

The Secretarial Auditor for the last financial year whose Secretarial Audit Report has been annexed to the Board’s Report is required to attend the AGM to give details about any qualifications/observations/comments or other remarks, if any, in his report and the explanations/comments given by the Board in their report and/or reply to the queries, if any, of the stakeholders on the compliance and governance aspects of the company.

However, it is advisable that the Secretarial Auditor appointed for the current financial year in which AGM is being held also attends the AGM.
Q. Who will be the chairman of the adjourned meeting?

Since an adjourned Meeting is a continuation of the original Meeting, the Chairman of the original Meeting should be the Chairman of the adjourned Meeting unless he is unable or unwilling to act as such or is validly removed by the Meeting.

If the Chairman of the Board was not present to chair the original Meeting but is present at the adjourned Meeting, he should take the Chair.

Q. If the Chairman of the Board arrives after the Meeting has commenced, will the Chairman elected for such Meeting continue to Chair?

The Chairman elected for such Meeting may continue to Chair the rest of the Meeting also.
Q. Does the Chairman need to explain the objective and implications of the Resolutions before they are put to vote at the Meeting even in cases where Resolutions have already been put to vote by remote e-voting?

Yes. Members who have not cast their vote through remote e-voting and have come to attend the Meeting physically are entitled to cast their votes at the meeting. Therefore, Chairman shall explain the objective and implications of the Resolutions before they are put to vote at the Meeting, as a good governance practice.
Q. In case of Special Business to be transacted at meeting, is it mandatory for the Chairman to explain the objective and implications of the Resolutions before they are put to vote, even if they are accompanied by “Explanatory Note”?

Yes. Even though Resolutions coming within the description of “Special Business” pertaining to each item of special business are accompanied by an explanatory note, the Chairman shall, at the Meeting, explain the objective and implications of each Resolution in simple language, taking the assistance, if required, of any other Director or Officer of the Company to do so.
Q. Is it necessary that the Company Secretary be seated with the Chairman at the AGM?

Rule 10 of Companies (Appointment and Remuneration of Managerial Personnel) Rules, 2014 clearly provides that it is the duty of the Company Secretary to facilitate the convening of meetings and attend Board, Committee and General Meetings and maintain the minutes of these meetings.

Accordingly, Company Secretary should be seated with the Chairman for convenience of the Chairman, since he is the one who assists the Chairman in conducting the Meetings.
Q. What to do if signature of the member on Proxy form is found different from the company/R&TA Records?

Proper details of name and folio number of the Member shall be entered on the Proxy form to facilitate identification.

If the signature of the Member on the Proxy form differs from that which is registered with the Company, the Proxy shall be rejected, unless such different signature has been duly attested.
Q. Are the details of all proxies received by the company required to be entered in the Register of Proxies or only the valid proxies?

In terms of Para 6.9.1 of SS-2, all proxies received by the company shall be recorded in the Register. In the case of rejection of Proxies, the reasons thereof shall also be entered in the remarks column as a best secretarial practice.
E-voting

- Listed Companies & Companies having not less than 1000 shareholders to provide e-voting facility.

- Facility of Remote e-voting does not dispense with the requirement of holding a General Meeting;

- Notice to inform the Members about procedure of Remote e-voting and other necessary information.
E - Voting

Q. Whether the shareholders who have utilised the e-voting facility and are in attendance at the general meeting, be counted for quorum?

Yes. all the members personally present at the meeting shall constitute the quorum.

Q. Can a member who has exercised his votes through e-voting appoint a proxy for the general meeting?

There is no such prohibition for a member who has casted his vote through e-voting to appoint a proxy for the meeting. Such a Member may appoint a proxy, the proxy so appointed may attend the meeting but he shall not be entitled to vote.

Yes, appointment of Scrutinizer can also be made in this manner.
Q. What is the need for proposing and seconding any Resolution by a Member at a Meeting?

Any Resolution before its consideration must be proposed by a member and seconded by any member.

The requirement of proposing and seconding of a Resolution at a Meeting is very much relevant in those companies where voting through remote e-voting has not taken place.
Q. In case resolutions are put to vote by remote e-voting and requisite majority has approved; but quorum is not present at the General Meeting, what would be the implications?

Whether the Resolution has been approved by the requisite majority through e-voting can be ascertained only after the Meeting. In case, quorum is not present at the Meeting, the Meeting shall stand adjourned as per the applicable provisions, for want of Quorum. The fate of the Resolution would be decided at such adjourned Meeting.
Q. Is the requirement to publish advertisement in newspapers applicable in all cases or only in those cases where e-voting or postal ballot is applicable?

It applies to only those companies to which e-voting or postal ballot applies.

Q. For how long should the advertisement on remote e-voting remain on the website, if any, of the company and that of the Agency?

The Notice and the advertisement on remote e-voting should remain on the website of the company, in case of companies having a website and of the Agency, till the date of General Meeting.
Content of Notice for e-voting
