CS R Sridharan, President, ICSI welcomes the Interim Budget 2014-15, as it possesses most of the ingredients to inject vibrancy into the economy. It demonstrates strong commitment for financial inclusion and governance. ICSI President in particular expresses satisfaction over government's intention for early implementation of FSLRC recommendations. He opined that early implementation of FSLRC recommendation will strengthen the governance in financial sector and will contribute to its rapid growth. President ICSI hoped that GST and DTC will be operational in year 2014-15.
