

ICSI proudly adopts Indian Attire / Dress for Convocation

With a view to adopt the Indian Attire for Convocation, the existing Attire (Gown and Cap) has now been done away with.

The Members who are to receive their certificate of membership at the forthcoming Convocation(s) scheduled to be held at Chennai, Kolkata, Delhi and Mumbai shall come wearing the following Indian attire/dress for the Convocation ceremony.

- (i) Male members shall wear white/cream coloured 'kurta' and white/cream coloured 'pyjama' with black/brown sandals or shoes.
- (ii) Female members shall wear white/cream coloured sarees with any colour border or white/cream coloured 'kameej' with white/cream coloured 'salwar', white/cream coloured 'dupatta' with black/brown shoes or sandals.
- (iii) There shall not be any headgear (excluding Sikhs).

A "Stole/Uttariya", made of Khadi, shall be issued to the members permanently at the time of registration, which they would have to wear around their neck and shoulders.

The members should also carry their ICSI lapel pin / member's badge for putting on the Indian attire/dress at the Convocation ceremony.
