In the last 2 decades the profile of Indian economy has changed. Ever since, with the increasing dynamism of risk and growth of professional risk management, the penetration of insurance has also increased and become popular. The liberalization of the economy has resulted in the availability of large number of alternative insurance products which cover financial risks.

Growth of IT, e-commerce, exports, projects exports, acquisition of companies in foreign countries by Indian companies or inflow of private equity, venture capital funding from foreign investors in Indian companies especially in pharmaceutical, IT and e-commerce is resulting in changes in the corporate board rooms. This has paved the way for insurance policies as an integral part of shareholders agreement.

Conditions such as political turmoil, civil war, border conflict etc. can ruin the export business especially to project export, where the period for construction / completion of project is spread over 2 to 5 years. Continuously changing business environment and complexity of multiple laws, regulations, and internal policies therefore require comparatively new types of insurance policies in order to stay ahead of others and to safeguard businesses, promoters and foreign investors. This necessitates need for buying "Liability Insurance". These issues require immediate redressal for giving a
