GOODS & SERVICES TAX

1. President Pranab Mukherjee’s assent to four GST bills paves the way for the roll out of the unified tax regime from July1, 2017.

The focus is on rates as the legislative framework is final. Rules under the four laws notified in the official gazette on Thursday—the Central GST Act, the Union Territories GST Act, the Integrated GST Act and the GST (Compensation to states) Act—are also almost final. Four set of rules relating to input tax credit, valuation norms, composition and transition provisions will be cleared by the council next month and five are already approved.⁶

2. While introducing the Telangana State Goods and Services Bill, 2017 during the special session of the Legislative Assembly, Finance Minister Eatala Rajender said that the proposed legislation, introduced on the instructions of the GST Council through a circulated draft of the State GST, would confer power on the State Government to levy goods and services tax on the supply of goods and services or both which take place within the State.

The new legislation would provide for levy of tax on all inter-State supplies of goods or services except for liquor and petroleum products and for establishment of an Authority for Advance Ruling in order to enable tax payer to seek binding clarity on taxation matters from the department. He further added that it would also provide for elaborate provisions for smooth transition of existing tax payers to good and services tax regime.⁷
