Mission
"To develop high calibre professionals facilitating good corporate governance"

Jammu Chapter cordially invites the members at the Study Circle Meeting on

Topic: IPO: Altering Regulatory and Legal Landscape in India

Topic: Income Tax Act (Amendment) Bill 2026

Key Note Speaker:

CS Manoj Kumar Purbey, Council Member, The ICSI

Key takeaways:

- India's IPO framework is becoming more investor-centric with stricter disclosure norms, tighter corporate governance, enhanced compliance for promoters and investors, faster approval processes, and increased use of technology and digital monitoring by SEBI to improve transparency, efficiency, and market integrity.

- The Income Tax Act (Amendment) Bill 2026 reforms aim to simplify and modernize India's tax regime through a taxpayer-friendly structure, introduction of the "Tax Year" concept, simplified compliance and ITR processes, faceless and technology-driven administration, rationalized penalty provisions and stronger reporting mechanisms for digital and foreign assets.
