

ICSI Faridabad Chapter conduct Moot Court competition

ICSI Faridabad Chapter conducted Moot Court competition. The competition grows with each event and has a lot of popularity among law students. The competition is conducted every year in the month of July. The competition sees participation from all over students of faridabad, over the legal problem given in the competition every year. Moot court competition was judged & conducted by CS RIYA KATHURIA faculty of ICSI Faridabad chapter. All the students participated in the activity with a professional court environment. Best participant was miss hanika of moot court competition was given a winning trophy.