The Annual Regional PCS Conference for each ICSI region is a landmark event held annually. The Western India Regional Council has been organizing the Annual Regional PCS Conference every year. This year's conference will center around the theme "Global Standards, Indian Values: Company Secretaries for Competitive India". As we navigate an era of rapid change and innovation, this theme underscores the importance of staying ahead of emerging trends and gaining valuable insights to drive future success. Attendees will have the opportunity to explore cutting-edge developments, learn from industry experts, and engage in discussions that will shape the future of our field. By addressing key challenges and opportunities, the conference aims to equip professionals with the knowledge and tools needed to influence and thrive in the evolving landscape.

Who can attend : PCS, Corporate Company Secretaries, Chartered Accountants, Cost Accountants, MBA Professionals & Directors of the corporates.
