ICSI is organising its 21st National Conference of Practising Company Secretaries at Udaipur, Rajasthan on the theme Achieving Excellence through Digital Transformation

The ICSI is organising its two day National Conference of Practising Company Secretaries on 15-16 January, 2021 at Udaipur, Rajasthan. The theme of the conference this year is 'Achieving Excellence through Digital Transformation'.

The field of practice in the profession of Company Secretary, rendering an array of professional services, is now thriving on the digital transformation. Up skilling the capabilities of the Practising Company Secretaries and unlocking the professional opportunities during these challenging times, the 21st National Conference of Practising Company Secretaries, witnessed the presence of Hon'ble Minister of State for Parliamentary Affairs and Heavy Industries & Public Enterprises, Government of India, Shri Arjun Ram Meghwal as the Chief Guest.

Shri Meghwal appreciating the efforts of ICSI during the pandemic said, "Covid -19 has forced a radical shift in working habits of professionals and of organisations. Analysing the emerging technologies that could impact businesses, the ICSI has done a commendable job by cashing in wisely on the opportunities that the pandemic has thrown and enhanced the knowledge base of its stakeholders".

The Institute also signed a Memorandum of Understanding with IIM-Bodhgaya on the occasion under the ICSI Academic Collaboration with Dr. Vinita S. Sahay, Director, IIM-Bodhgaya in the benign presence of Hon'ble Minister.

In tune with the theme of the programme, CS Ashish Garg, President, The ICSI, said, "We as professionals are contemplating our roles and the altered dynamics of our profession given the transformation and digitisation of the processes we proudly called our forte areas. The idea behind reflecting upon the same or sharing of thoughts in these two days is to bring about a realisation that Digital Transformation is here to stay and shall form part of the corporate and professional culture. It is high time that we brace ourselves to embrace the same with complete gusto and zeal".
