To revise limit of number of trainees to be allowed in various entities.

The Institute has revised the limit of trainees to be accommodated by the various entities. Now the maximum limit of 20 trainees shall be universally applicable to all types of entities registered with Institute for imparting training to CS students.

In addition to the above , the Institute has also relaxed the requirement of submitting partnership deed for registering law firms for imparting training to CS students

The above changes would be effective from 1st June, 2017
