INSOLVENCY VERSUS BANKRUPTCY

Repayment plan under insolvency is in the nature of a compromise – adherence to repayment plan means the debtor comes out as a non-defaulter

- No question of impairment of credit
- Debtor maintains assets, credit, social reputation, right to borrow

However, why will creditors prefer insolvency over bankruptcy?

- Assets available for immediate liquidation in insolvency are such assets as debtor is willing to liquidate immediately
- However, there may be a repayment plan to pay over time
- Possibility of family assets too

The bargain between insolvency and bankruptcy is the same as between CDR vs OTS

BANKRUPTCY PROCESS

-For Individuals and Partnership Firms
WHO IS A BANKRUPT?

“Bank” + “rupt”
- ‘bank’ means ‘bench or a place of business’
- ‘rupt’ derived from ‘ruptus’ means ‘broken’

‘Bankrupt’ is ‘bankrupt’ only when he is adjudged as such

“bankrupt” means—
(a) a debtor who has been adjudged as bankrupt by a bankruptcy order under section 126;
(b) each of the partners of a firm, where a bankruptcy order under section 126 has been made against a firm; or
(c) any person adjudged as an undischarged insolvent

Sec 79 (3) IBC, India

Significance of the last limb of the definition:
• After commencement of an insolvency proceeding, if the insolvent fails to get a discharge u/s 92 (2) or 119 (1), the AA may adjudge the insolvent as bankrupt
Insolvency Process is a pre-condition - direct application for bankruptcy not allowed.

Possible by debtor/creditor

- Creditor-individually or jointly
- In case debtor is a firm, application may be filed by any of its partners

Within 3 months of the order passed by AA under Section 100(4), or 115(2), or 118(3), as the case may be (refer succeeding slide)

Applicant may propose an insolvency professional to act as bankruptcy trustee;

Application shall not be withdrawn without the leave of AA.

Interim moratorium commences once application is filed (Sec. 124(1)(a))

- Terminates on bankruptcy commencement date
- Debars all actions against properties of the debtor in respect of his debts
- Creditors not entitled to initiate legal actions against properties in respect of any of the debts of the debtor.

Such interim-moratorium provisions not to apply to transactions notified by the Central Government in consultation with any financial sector regulator.
WHEN IS APPLICATION FILED

Application for Bankruptcy (Sec. 122 & 123)

Order by AA recording rejection of repayment plan by meeting of creditors (Section 115(2))

Both debtor and creditor entitled to apply

Order of AA on premature ending of the repayment plan under Section 118(3)

Application for IRP is rejected by AA under Section 100(4)

Creditor entitled to file application

The debtor or the creditor, whose claims have not been fully satisfied entitled to apply
Can a person be undischarged from insolvency and still not undergo bankruptcy?

- Sec 121 suggests that bankruptcy order is only on application
- However, sec 79 (3) (c ) provides additional limb to include undischarged insolvent

So, if insolvent does not obtain discharge [failure of repayment plan, or unsuccessful completion of repayment plan], insolvency has not been redeemed

Since undischarged insolvent is a bankrupt, this person is still a bankrupt

Bankruptcy order u/s 126 is a process of redeeming the bankrupt from bankruptcy, which will otherwise continue to stay

MODIFICATION OR RECALL OF BANKRUPTCY ORDER – sec 142

By AA – on application or suo moto

Where it appears to AA that –

- there exists an error apparent on the face of such order
- both the bankruptcy debts and the expenses of the bankruptcy have, after the making of the bankruptcy order, either been paid for or secured to the satisfaction of the Adjudicating Authority

Effect of modification/recall

- Sale, payments, etc. by bankruptcy trustee remain valid
- Property of the bankrupt shall vest in such person as AA may appoint or may revert to the bankrupt on terms as directed by AA
- Order binding on all creditors so far it relates to bankruptcy debts

Each of these are different

- Recall of the order – the order itself is recalled; the bankrupt has not undergone bankruptcy process
- Discharge on completion of administration – assets have been liquidated
- Setting aside or quashing of the order of the AA on appeal- there never was a bankruptcy order
(Sec 128): Upon passing of the bankruptcy order, the immediate effect is as follows

- Bankruptcy Estate: Bankruptcy estate shall vest with the bankruptcy trustee

- Moratorium: Bankrupt shall be immune from any action by the creditors w.r.t. (a) Property of the bankrupt; (b) any legal proceedings without permission of AA

- Division of Estate: The estate shall be divided amongst the creditors
THE BANKRUPTCY MORATORIUM — Sec.128 (1) (c)

Blocks these:
- A creditor shall not initiate any action against property of the bankrupt
- A creditor shall not commence any suit or other legal proceeding except with the leave of the AA

Note the bar is only on a creditor — if there is a monetary implication against the debtor, the claimant becomes a creditor

Can excluded debts be recovered? Usually AA should not object to recovery of an excluded debt by any action
- Fines, damages, maintenance obligation, etc

Does not block these:
- Enforcement action by secured creditor — sec 128 (2)
- Punitive action for personal misconduct, such as contempt of court
- Ruling in Smith vs Braintree DC [1990] 2 AC 215 — criminal proceedings not stayed; quasi-criminal proceedings, with predominant purpose of enforcing a payment, may get stayed.
STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL POSITION — SEC 129

To be submitted by the debtor in all creditor-filed applications

Format to be prescribed u/s 129 (2)

- Currently, no format prescribed

Usual contents [based on Rule 10.56 of UK Rules]

10.56.—(1) The statement of affairs must contain—
(a) identification details for the proceedings; (b) identification details for the bankrupt;
(c) the date of the bankruptcy order;
(d) a list of the bankrupt’s secured creditors giving in relation to each—
(i) the name and postal address,
(ii) the amount owed to the creditor, and
(iii) particulars of the property of the bankrupt which is claimed by the creditor to clear or reduce the creditor’s debt and the value of that property;
(e) a list of unsecured creditors giving in relation to each—
(i) the name and postal address of the creditor,
(ii) the amount the creditor claims the bankrupt owes to that creditor, and
(iii) the amount the bankrupt thinks is owed by the bankrupt to that creditor;
(f) a list of the bankrupt’s total assets (which must include anything not previously mentioned in the statement of affairs which may be of value) divided into the following categories and giving the value of each asset listed—

(iii) life policies,
(iv) money owed to the bankrupt,
(v) stock in trade,
(vi) motor vehicles, and
(vii) other property; and
(g) the total value of the assets listed under paragraph (f).
RELEVANCE OF STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL POSITION

Besides being a succinct yet comprehensive record of assets and obligations, the SFP is also a way to track the past financial history of the debtor

- Particularly to find any vulnerable transactions

Penal provision of sec 186 (a)

- False representation
- Wilful omission or concealment
- While providing any information during the bankruptcy process

Can creditors seek a copy of the SFP?

- Usually, the SFP is the basis of the bankruptcy proceedings
- UK law specifically empowers creditors to seek a copy of it

Regulation-making may take care of this Sec 140: Upon Bankruptcy Order shall, the bankrupt shall be disqualified from acting as-

a) being appointed or acting as a trustee or representative in respect of any trust, estate or settlement;

b) being appointed or acting as a public servant;

c) being elected to any public office where the appointment to such office is by election; and

d) being elected or sitting or voting as a member of any local authority.
ADDITIONAL DISQUALIFICATIONS

Additionally, the bankrupt also attracts disqualification from/ under various other laws. Illustrative list is below:

- Companies Act, 1956/2013
- Insurance Regulatory and development Act
- Being a member of a professional body viz. ICAI; ICSI. ICWA
- Holding office under the Notaries Act, 1952
- Being a part of composition of the State Commission under Consumer Protection Act, 1986
- Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Central Rules, 1971
- Holding office under the Indian Constitution
- Limited Liability Partnership Rules, 2009
- Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934
RESTRICTIONS ON A BANKRUPT

Sec. 141: Apart from disqualifications as discussed, bankruptcy order also attracts the following restrictions upon the bankrupt:

- Cannot be a member of a professional body
- Cannot act as director/promoter
- Cannot create any charge of his/her debt
- Cannot maintain legal proceedings w.r.t. bankruptcy debts
- Cannot travel overseas without permission of AA
- Cannot take further debt without approval of the Bankruptcy Trustee

ROLE OF CREDITORS UNDER BANKRUPTCY

<tr>
<th>General meeting of creditors</th>
<th>Committee meeting of creditors</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The first meeting of creditors will mandatorily have to be called, within 21 days of BCD – sec. 133 (1)</td>
<td>The Committee is constituted by the Trustee. Composition of the Committee is not laid down in the Code or the Regs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Primary business of the first meeting is to constitute the Committee of Creditors</td>
<td>Given the fact that Creditors’ Committee has substantial powers to drive the bankruptcy process, including power to replace the trustee, the Committee’s composition must reflect the voting share of the general body</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| Voting percentage for the general meeting is not given in the Code or the Regulations. Sec 134 (3) provides for passing of a resolution
• By common intuition, this should be ordinary majority resolution | Trustee to intimate to the AA the constitution of the Committee within 3 days – reg 20 (2) |
VOTING SHARE FOR GUARANTEE CREDITORS

Sec. 135 (3) – a creditor shall not be entitled to vote for an unliquidated amount

- Unliquidated amount normally refers to unliquidated damages for breach of a contract which requires adjudication
- The right of creditor to demand money from guarantor, if clear under the guarantee deed, is an ascertainable claim
- Several rulings of the SC on this point, Biswanath Jhunjhunwala, Ganga Kishun, etc

The Code has several provisions for secured creditor’s voting rights – only in respect of surrendered security interest, or unsecured part of his claim

- Sec. 110, 123 (3)

However, is a secured creditor of the CD a secured creditor of the guarantor?

- Answer will be no, unless there assets of guarantor given as security

Hence, the voting shares will be based on claims filed by the guarantee creditors

Claim amount:

- Where resolution plan for CD has been approved – the amount of haircut
- Where the resolution plan for CD is not yet approved – the whole of the amount payable by the CD
- Where the CD is in liquidation, and the creditor has relinquished security interest – the amount claimed, less any distribution
- Where the CD is neither in resolution, nor liquidation – the amount due from CD, as demanded from guarantor
Secured Creditors

The bankruptcy order shall not affect the right of any secured creditor to realize or otherwise deal with his security interest in the same manner as he would have been entitled if the bankruptcy order had not been passed:

Who is a secured creditor?

Secured creditor is a lender that provides collateralized debt.

Secured in respect of what?
• His claim against the debtor in question

Under the Code, secured creditor shall have rights of a secured creditor only upto the amount of security not relinquished.

Also, a secured creditor is taken secured only to the extent of value of security interest – sec. 123 (3)

Three options of a secured creditor

1. Relinquish security interest, claim against bankruptcy estate, and get top priority u/s 178
2. Enforce security interest outside of bankruptcy process:
   1. He would have first filed a claim separately for the secured and unsecured portions
   2. Trustee has the right to pit an alternative buyer
Bankruptcy trustee to give notice to every creditor
   Within 14 days from days of preparing list of creditors

Interest on debt - provable as part of the debt
   Till bankruptcy commencement date

Mandatory to call meeting of creditors – section 133 (associates not entitled to vote) –
   Committee of creditors is to be established – section 134(3)

Creditor approval is mandatory for certain acts by bankruptcy trustee – section 153
   Also, the CoC approves the report of bankruptcy trustee on administration of the estate, and determines whether the bankrupt be released
Ref: Sec 138
Application by bankruptcy trustee to AA;

Earlier of —

- Expiry of 1 year from the bankruptcy commencement date
- Within 7 days of the approval of the committee of creditors of the completion of administration of estate of the bankrupt, if the said approval is accorded before the expiry of 1 year from the bankruptcy commencement date

Effects

- Bankrupt is released from all bankruptcy debts
- In case the application for discharge is filed within 7 days of the creditors’ approval, the discharge does not affect
  - functions of the bankruptcy trustee
  - the operation of the provisions of Chapters IV and V of Part III;

These remain unaffected

- Right of the secured creditor to enforce his security for the payment of a debt from which the bankrupt is discharged
- Bankrupt is not released in respect of debts incurred by means of fraud or breach of trust to which he was a party
- Bankrupt is not released from any excluded debt

Undischarged bankrupt — means a bankrupt who has not received a discharge order u/s 138

EXCLUDED ASSETS — PERSONAL ORNAMENTS AND OTHER ASSETS

Personal ornament exception — sec 79 (14) (c)

- Personal ornaments of debtor “or his immediate family”
  - There is no question of vesting of assets of immediate family members
  - The reference may only for use of the ornaments
- Which cannot be parted with as per religious custom
- Limited in value to Rs 1 lac

Tools, books, vehicle or other equipment

- Necessary for personal use or
- the employment or vocation of the bankrupt
- How many vehicles can be retained?
  - The question is one of necessity
  - Hence, seems exception is only for 1 vehicle
  - Luxury vehicles may also have to be vested

Furniture, household equipment or provisions necessary for basic domestic needs

Unencumbered LIP or pension plan
EXCLUDED ASSETS — DWELLING UNIT

Unencumbered single dwelling unit of such value as may be prescribed

- Unit owned of by the debtor, of upto Rs 20 lacs in urban areas
- Upto Rs 10 lacs in rural areas
- Rural area defined in line with NAREGA law — any area outside the area under a local body or cantonment board

As for determination of value, values’ valuations may be relevant

Unlikely that the bankrupt will have a dwelling unit of as much value

Most bankrupt-owned properties may be of value higher than the ceilings:

- Does the bankrupt get as much value from the bankruptcy estate, if he cedes his house to the estate?
- Seems logical, equitable

How to deal with interests in dwelling units:

- Practically, the dwelling unit may be owned in various modes
  - Owned by an HUF, debtor has a co parcener’s interest
  - Owned jointly, debtor has a joint owner’s interest
  - Owned by spouse, debtor has right to stay
  - Under tenancy – tenancy rights
  - Joint tenancy rights

The only carve out is to leave a dwelling unit owned by the debtor
INCLUSIONS IN THE ESTATE OF THE BANKRUPT

- All property that gets comprised by virtue of any of the provisions – such as preferential transfers, undervalued transactions

Wide definition of “property” in sec 3 (27)

Causes of action personal to the bankrupt do not form part of “property”

- Damages for pain/harm to body, mind or character – Grady v HM Prison Service (2003) EWCA Civ 523
- Damages for unfair dismissal

Family property

- Several rulings under erstwhile insolvency laws that interest of the bankrupt in family property may be liquidated as a part of the bankruptcy estate. Eg. Ramchandra Aiyar, (1922) 43 MLJ 569

Doctrine of reputed ownership has not been incorporated in the Code

Provident fund – sec 10 of the PF Act provides that money lying to the credit of the person shall not be subject to claim under erstwhile Insolvency laws
