Theme: Liberalised International Environment

November 12-14, 1992, Hotel Oberoi Grand, Calcutta

Inaugurated by Shri H. R. Bhardwaj, Hon'ble Minister of State for Law, Justice and Company Affairs

“...Expressed satisfaction that the profession of Company Secretaries has grown tremendously and become not only popular but has proved to be of great utility and benefit to the Government, Trade & industry and other organized sector...made a specific mention of cooperation and assistance extended by the Institute to the Department in the recodification of the Companies Act and on various other issues such as secretarial compliance, lump sum payment of fees, reduction of the number of forms, winding-up of companies and problems of odd lot shares, etc...He added that the Company Secretaries are custodians of public interest and as crucial link between their respective companies and public must fulfill their positive social responsibility. He observed that freedom from administrative controls will increase the dependence of the corporate sector on professional advice of the Company Secretaries and called upon the Company Secretaries to maintain the delicate balance between the interest of the company and the interest of the investors, consumers and the general public...”
