b. Ladies: Indian formals, i.e., white sari or salwar-kurta, or Western formals, i.e., white shirt, black trousers/skirt.

IV. Language

The language of the competition will be English.

V. Eligibility

The competition is open only to registered students of the Institute of Company Secretaries of India (ICSI). Students who have appeared for the CS / Law final examinations and results not declared are also eligible to participate. Students who have passed professional level examinations, completed Law, Practicing Advocates, Chartered Accountants & Cost Accountants courses are not eligible to participate.

VI. Team Composition

a. Each team shall consist of a minimum of 2 and maximum of 4 members. This number cannot be modified under any circumstances. In case of students, who are also law students, (LLB or BL), with a view to have a healthy combination of law students and non-law students, it is advisable that the ratio of law students and non-law students should be 50:50. This provision envisages osmosis of talent and a level playing field for competing teams.

b. There can be 2 speakers and 2 researchers designated in each team.

c. However, teams have the option of designating 2 of their members (out of maximum of 4) to be speakers for the Petitioner and the other 2 speakers for the Respondent for the purpose of gaining experience. The team shall notify such an arrangement at the time of registration to the organizers and such arrangement cannot be modified during the competition under any circumstances.

   “By this arrangement, the members may lose the chance of winning the best speaker and second best speaker award, as the awards are based on the total marks secured during the preliminary rounds only”

d. Each team will have a team code and each participant shall be given an individual code. Teams shall not disclose their identity or that of their region / city etc.; such disclosure shall invite automatic penalties including disqualification. The Administrator’s decision in this matter shall be final.
VII. Registration

Teams must register with the offices as per schedule given in Clause II. All communications should be marked as “ICSI 14th All India Moot Court Competition 2016” in the subject column and sent by email / courier. Please refer to schedule at point II.
