29th National Convention of Company Secretaries

Theme: Developments In Corporate and Cyber Laws – International Perspective

December 13-15, 2001, J.N. Tata Auditorium, Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore

Inaugurated by Shri Michael Bastian, Executive Director, Vijaya Bank

“....Company Secretaries being responsible for ensuring Good Corporate Governance must ensure that the interest of investor is well protected in the Companies...He observed that there is an imminent need on the part of the corporate sector to observe highest standards of ethics and put in place the value systems...In the context of e-governance and cyber crimes being important issues the world over today, he felt that these issues should be on the priority of the agenda of International Organisations and National Governments. They should come together and devise uniform mechanism to deal with problems in the e-governance and growing menace of cyber crimes. In this regard he called upon Company Secretaries to ensure that proper security systems are put in place to avoid damage to database and network...”
