“...Congratulated the ICSI for creating a massive platform to deliberate strategies and methodologies for powering Governance in order to empower Stakeholders...True empowerment of our country needs appropriate strategy to embark upon the challenges like poverty alleviation, agricultural reforms, co-operation between Centre and States, transparency, judicious delivery of services, job creation, development of infrastructure and setting up of business with ease and convenience etc. In short, the nation should be directed to empower its stakeholders along with the goal of Self Sufficient and Self Reliant India...”

- Excerpts from Inaugural Address by
Shri Vijaybhai R. Rupani,
Hon'ble Chief Minister of Gujarat
[17th November, 2016]

“...Company secretaries are the conscience keepers of the nation, they are those professionals who protect the interest of the average shareholders and therefore are the Saarthis of Indian Businesses. CS are those who hold up the banner of law in a business set-up that entirely sustains on the profit-making model. While all focus on money, it is the CS who wave off the flag to draw attention towards the compliances. Speaking on the role of the CS in developing the economy, the Minister said that Legacy of Indian Business is entwined with Philanthropy. We cannot afford to be a “Jugaad Economy” and here comes the role of a CS. You have the power to change the small stories of women and men in remotest areas of the nation to achieve their best potentials...”
