Opportunities in GST & Indirect Taxes

Within less than a decade; India's GST regime, has matured from a structural tax reform into a technology-driven compliance and revenue management framework. While the initial focus was on creating a unified national market and eliminating cascading taxes, the current priorities are centered on revenue buoyancy, compliance efficiency, litigation management, and economic competitiveness. GST collections have demonstrated resilience, supported by increased formalization of the economy, data-driven enforcement, e-invoicing, and improved tax administration.

In view of the completion of 9 years of the GST journey, we are pleased to inform you that the July 2026 issue of Chartered Secretary Journal will be devoted to the above theme and the sub-themes mentioned below:

- ❖ Green Energy Subsidies: Impact on corporates and sustainability
- ❖ Taxing cross-border e-commerce & digital streaming platforms: Challenges impending
- ❖ Integration of e-invoicing and e-way bills: Impact on tax evasion
- ❖ GST and MSMEs : The present and the future
- ❖ Strengthening digital backbone of GST: Present norms and future expectations
- ❖ Growth, inflation, and demand impacts across sectors: A detailed evaluation
- ❖ Digital Transformation: Efficacy of AI-driven invoice matching, faceless audits, and reduction of classification disputes.
- ❖ Base GST structures and peripheral social initiatives (National Security Cess Bill, 2025): Interplay in Between
- ❖ Sunset of anti-profiteering rules: Impact on Business price adjustments
- ❖ India's GST 2.0: A Visionary Approach to Viksit Bharat 2047

The length of the article should ordinarily be between 2,500 - 4,000 words. However, a longer article can also be considered if the topic of discussion so demands. The articles should be forwarded in MS-Word format.
