Dear Professional Colleagues,

Subject: First Virtual International Conference on Sustainable Finance, Economics & Accounting in the Pre- and Post- Pandemic Era [July 30-31, 2021]

As you are already aware, The Institute of Company Secretaries of India recently signed a Memorandum of Understanding with Indian Institute of Management – Jammu (IIM-Jammu) to facilitate a comprehensive partnership for imparting knowledge and skills.

It gives immense pleasure to inform you that our Academic Partner IIM-Jammu and University of BRADFORD, UK is organizing an International Conference on Sustainable Finance, Economics & Accounting in the Pre- and Post- Pandemic Era to be held on July 30-31, 2021 in virtual mode. Our members have an opportunity to present their Academic, Professional and Research paper, without payment of any registration fees. Members who do not want to present their paper but to participate in the Conference in virtual mode may also join without any registration fees.

The conference aims to bring together leading academic experts, Professionals , researchers and research scholars to exchange and share their ideas, experiences and research in the field of ‘Sustainable Finance, Economics and Accounting’. Further details about the conference themes are available at: http://www.iimj.ac.in/icfea\_conference

A detailed brochure of the conference is also attached herewith.

You can submit your paper through following link on or before 30th May 2021:
