

ATTENTION STUDENTS!

All Foundation Programme Students whose registrations are valid but have not been able to clear the Foundation Programme Stage during December, 2017 Session for which results have been declared on 21st February, 2018 have been automatically switched over to the New Syllabus 2017. Such students are requested to fill their examination form.

They are eligible to get the Study Materials free of cost for all subjects/ papers in which they do not have any exemption after switchover.

In order to avail the facility of getting the Study Materials free of cost, students are required to submit their Online Requests at the following link by 9th April, 2018:

<http://www.icsi.in/StudyDispatchFNS/StudyRegistration.aspx>

It may be noted that the online link for submission of requests for study materials will be deactivated after 9th April, 2018 and any further requests for Study Materials received after the stipulated date of 9th April, 2018 will not be entertained.

Detailed announcement in respect of Introduction of new syllabus 2017 along with corresponding paper wise exemption scheme is attached for your ready reference.

Notification_foundati on New Syllabus (201

Attention_Foundatio n_programme_studer