ICSI AI READINESS, ADOPTION & FUTURE STRATEGY SURVEY

Dear Members/Students

Artificial Intelligence (AI) is transforming the way individuals and organizations work by enabling machines to perform tasks that typically require human intelligence. As AI adoption continues to grow across industries, ICSI invites you to participate in the ICSI AI Readiness, Adoption & Future Strategy Survey.

This survey by ICSI aims to understand awareness, usage, opportunities, and challenges related to AI among its members and stakeholders.

Your feedback will help ICSI design future-focused learning programs, identify emerging opportunities, and develop strategies to support the profession in an AI-driven environment.

You are requested to share your inputs through google form <https://forms.gle/P1f5RmX9eU3Ydk7T8> latest by August 22, 2026.

We look forward to your active participation in shaping the future of the profession in the age of Artificial Intelligence.

Regards

Team ICSI
