Dear All,

I have great pleasure in inviting you to the 10th International Conference on Social Responsibility, being held on 5 - 6 February 2016, at Hotel Taj Lands End, Mumbai. The theme of this international conference is ‘Embedding CSR Mandate into Corporate Strategy’.

The best approaches to CSR have been so fragmented and disconnected from business and strategy, as to obscure many of the greatest opportunities for companies to benefit society. If, instead, corporations were to analyze their prospects for social responsibility, using the same framework that guide their core business choices, they would discover that CSR can be more than a cost, a constraint, or a charitable deed – it can be a source of opportunity, innovation, and competitive advantage.

Then in 2013, India became the first country in the world to mandate Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) spending, through a statutory provision under the Companies Act 2013, followed by Rules governing the same in 2014.

From drawing board to boardroom, and to shop-floor, in this Conference we would like to examine the corporate strategies of a number of companies at the forefront of strategic CSR, as well as their alliance partners, and explore the evolution of corporate citizenship. The choice is no longer one of ‘whether or not?’ but rather of ‘How to?’ and ‘To what extent?’

This International conference will provide a platform to interact with movers and shakers and CSR professionals, from around the world. There are many ways you can contribute and benefit from the Congress- presenting your Business solutions and case studies for sustainability through social responsibility or, showcasing your products, profiling your brand as a sponsor, exhibitor or advertiser or becoming a partner to promote the conference among your contacts. Together, we could help promote your business strategy to include ‘CSR, as a Legally Actionable Business Agenda’.

I look forward to welcoming you, at this International Conference.

Yours sincerely,

Justice M. N. Venkatachaliah

Chairman, IOD Advisory Council and former Chief Justice of India

INSTITUTE OF DIRECTORS, India:
Established in 1990, Institute Of Directors (IOD), India is an independent, non-profit apex association of professional corporate directors. It has since grown to associate with more than 30,000 senior executives representing prominent organisations from both the Private & Public Sectors and Govt. from India and abroad and is now globally, regarded as one of the premier organizations for development, training and networking of corporate directors to attain their leadership role.

IOD, India’s ‘Masterclass for Directors’, training programme for corporate directorship and Golden Peacock Awards in 13 different disciplines and other flagship initiatives aim to improve the competitiveness of individual Directors and their organizations. The ‘Masterclass’ programme prepares participants to become Independent Directors of listed companies. Both have become global benchmarks. No business award today receives the kind of recognition and adulation among peers, that the Golden Peacock does.
