Sub: Invitation for Empanelment as Arbitrator at ICSI International ADR Centre

Dear Esteemed Members,

In today's complex world, conflicts can escalate quickly, becoming increasingly time-consuming and complicated. Arbitration and Mediation offer a simpler, faster, and more peaceful alternative for resolving disputes, especially where commercial disputes are concerned, timely resolution not only provides effective resolution but would enable various projects to be economically viable.

Arbitration fosters dialogue, understanding, and cooperation, making it an effective means of settling disputes. To promote amicable dispute resolutions, particularly in commercial contracts, the Institute of Company Secretaries of India (ICSI) launched the ICSI International ADR Centre in Noida, Uttar Pradesh, last year. This center facilitates Arbitration and Mediation at both national and international levels.

Inaugurated by Justice P. Sathasivam, former Chief Justice of India, the ICSI International ADR Centre is a state-of-the-art facility. Located in Delhi NCR, Noida, it boasts world-class infrastructure, advanced video conferencing facilities, and top-notch administrative support. Plans are underway to establish similar centers across various cities in India.

The primary objective of the ICSI International ADR Centre is to promote Alternate Dispute Resolution (ADR) methods, including Arbitration and Mediation. The center aims to assist and educate individuals, corporations, firms, institutions, and establishments, both local and international, in resolving disputes efficiently.

The ICSI International ADR Centre (Commercial Arbitration) Rules, 2025, came into effect on January 30, 2025. The center invites applications from professionals interested in being empaneled as Arbitrators.

Interested members and professionals can visit <https://www.icsiadr.in> for detailed information on eligibility criteria and the application process.

For further queries, please email internationaladrcentre@icsi.edu.

Best Regards,

CS Dhananjay Shukla
President, ICSI & Director, ICSI International ADR Centre
