Dear Students,

SUB: Intimation to attend only one regular short term training program in a day

As you are aware, that compliance of short term and long term CS training is a mandatory requirement of the CS training structure.

It has been noticed that some students are undergoing two regular short term mandatory trainings (physical mode) on the same day in different batches from various ROs/Chapters.

Therefore, it is being informed to all the CS students that in case, the student is found to have attended two regular trainings (physical mode) on the same day, then the Institute will accept only one training as valid.

Thus, with a view to focus on good Governance and quality training, it is being intimated to the students at large to not attend more than one training program (physical mode) in a day.
