FAQs on Secretarial Audit

1. What is Secretarial Audit?

Secretarial Audit is an audit to check compliance of various legislations including the Companies Act and other corporate and economic laws applicable to the company.

The Secretarial Auditor expresses an opinion as to whether there exist adequate systems and processes in the company commensurate with the size and operations of the company to monitor and ensure compliance with applicable laws, rules, regulations and guidelines. Secretarial Audit helps to detect the instances of non-compliance and facilitates taking corrective measures. It audits the adherence of good corporate practices by the company.

It is therefore an independent and objective assurance intended to add value and improve operations of the Company. It helps to accomplish the organisation's objectives by bringing a systematic, disciplined approach to evaluate and improve effectiveness of risk management, control, and governance processes.

Secretarial Audit thus provides necessary comfort to the management, regulators and the stakeholders, as to the statutory compliance, good governance and the existence of proper and adequate systems and processes.

2. What are the benefits of Secretarial Audit?

Secretarial Audit can be an effective multi-pronged weapon to assure the regulator, generate confidence amongst the shareholders, the creditors and other stakeholders in companies, assure FIIs/FIs/SFCs/SIDCs/Banks and instill self regulation and professional discipline in companies. It is a tool of risk mitigation and will allow companies to effectively address compliance risk issues. It helps the companies to build their corporate image.

Secretarial Audit facilitates monitoring compliances with the requirements of law through a formal compliance management programme which can produce positive results to the stakeholders of a company:

(a) Promoters

Secretarial Audit assures the promoters of a company that those in-charge of its management are conducting its affairs in accordance with the requirements of laws and the owners' stake is not being exposed to unintended risk.

(b) Non-executive/Independent directors

Secretarial Audit provides comfort to the Non-executive/Independent Directors that appropriate mechanisms and processes are in place to ensure compliance with laws applicable to the company, thus mitigating any risk from a regulatory or governance perspective.

(c) Government authorities/regulators

It also facilitates reducing the burden of the regulators in ensuring compliances and they can take timely actions against the offenders.

(d) Investors

Secretarial Audit helps the investors in taking informed investment decision, as it evaluates the company in terms of compliance and governance norms being followed by the company.

(e) Other Stakeholders

It is an effective due diligence exercise for the prospective investors or joint venture partners. Further Financial Institutions, Banks, Creditors and Consumers can measure the law abiding nature of company management.

(f) Benefits to the company itself

- Companies that go the extra mile with their compliance programs lay the foundation for good governance.
- Companies with an effective compliance management programme have lesser chance of receiving penalties, both monetary and by way of imprisonment.
- Companies that imbibe business and personal ethics and an effective compliance management programme within their work culture often enjoy employee and customer loyalty and public respect for their brand, which can translate into better market capitalization and shareholder returns.
- Recognition for the company as a good corporate citizen.

The Secretarial Audit provides an in-built mechanism for enhancing corporate compliance generally and help restore the confidence of investors in the capital market through greater transparency in corporate functioning.

3. Who can conduct Secretarial Audit?

Only a member of the Institute of Company Secretaries of India holding certificate of practice (company secretary in practice) can conduct Secretarial Audit and furnish the Secretarial Audit Report to the company. [Section 204(1) of Companies Act, 2013]

23. What are the skills required for conducting Secretarial Audit?

The object of the Secretarial Auditor's Report is to undertake evaluation and form an opinion and to report to the shareholders as to whether, and if so, to what extent, the company has complied with the laws comprising various statutes, rules, regulations, about the board process, existence of compliance management system. This requires knowledge of the corporate laws and economic laws applicable to the company.

Thus, for conducting Secretarial Audit, a Company Secretary in Practice is expected to have expert knowledge of all corporate laws. To be able to give an effective report, a Company Secretary in Practice is expected to have the following:

- 1) Knowledge : While conducting the Audit, the secretarial auditor should have the knowledge of exact nature and activities of the Company, about the laws which are applicable to the Company. He should have understanding of existence of compliance system, Board process & procedures, selection and evaluation process for the Board.
- 2) Team : He is required to ensure that he has a team of appropriately trained staff, who can support the preparation of the report. Most importantly they should be informed of the basic audit requirements and ethics. Related legislative and administrative updates should be shared and communicated with the team to build and maintain the expertise.
- 3) Documentation & backup : He is expected to develop a manual & checklists which will help in evaluation process. He is required to keep proper records of documents and checklists filed during the course of audit.
- 4) Reliance upon management representations and declaration : He may rely upon the management representation letter or declaration upto a certain extent.

- 5) Third party supporting and evidences : It would always be helpful to check filing made by the company at MCA & other authorities independently. Verification and enquiries can also be made with the other statutory and internal auditors and consultants and Independent Directors of the Company
- 6) Adhering to the timelines : Schedule set to conduct the audit process should be strictly adhered to in order to gain the confidence of the client and boost the expertise level of the team.
- 7) Honesty and impartiality : A Company Secretary in Practice has the professional duty to provide an unbiased and objective view. Company Secretary in Practice should be independent from the company being audited.

The Secretarial Auditor is expected to ensure that activities of the client company are in accordance with the applicable procedure and that supporting evidence maintained by the company is genuine.

- 8) Maintaining Audit Diary : The Audit exercise needs to be planned and executed professionally and verifications done by the team members should be recorded daily. Such maintenance of diary would help in keeping audit trail that would come in handy to ensure the quality of audit.

24. What is the duty of Secretarial Auditor with respect to reporting on fraud under section 143(12) of the Companies Act, 2013?

A very significant duty has been cast on the Company Secretary in Practice under section 143 (12) of the Companies Act, 2013. It provides that if the Company Secretary in Practice, in the course of the performance of his duties as auditor, has reason to believe that an offence involving fraud is being or has been committed against the company by officers or employees of the company, he shall immediately report the matter to the Central Government.

The Companies (Amendment) Bill, 2014 passed by Lok Sabha proposes to substitute section 143(12) as under:

“(12) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, if an auditor of a company in the course of the performance of his duties as auditor, has reason to believe that an offence of fraud involving such amount or amounts as may be prescribed, is being or has been committed in the company by its officers or employees, the auditor shall report the matter to the Central Government within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed:

Provided that in case of a fraud involving lesser than the specified amount, the auditor shall report the matter to the audit committee constituted under section 177 or to the Board in other cases within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed:

Provided further that the companies, whose auditors have reported frauds under this sub-section to the audit committee or the Board but not reported to the Central Government, shall disclose the details about such frauds in the Board's report in such manner as may be prescribed.”

Further, as per the Companies (Audit and Auditors) Rules, 2014, in case the auditor has sufficient reason to believe that an offence involving fraud, is being or has been committed against the company by officers or employees of the company, he shall report the matter to the Central Government immediately but not later than sixty days of his knowledge.

In case, Company Secretary in Practice does not comply with the provisions of section 143(12), he shall be punishable with fine which shall not be less than one lakh rupees but which may extend to twenty-five lakh rupees.

Sub-section (13) of Section 143 provides that no duty shall be regarded as having been contravened by reason of his reporting the matter (fraud) if it is done in good faith.

25. What is the manner of reporting Qualification in the Secretarial Audit Report ?

A qualification, reservation or adverse remarks, if any, should be stated by the Secretarial Auditor at the relevant places in his report in bold type or in italics.

If the Secretarial Auditor is unable to express an opinion on any matter, he should mention that he is unable to express an opinion on that matter and the reasons therefor. If the scope of work required to be performed is restricted on account of restrictions imposed by the company or on account of circumstantial limitations (like certain books or papers being in the custody of another person who is not available or a Government Authority), the Report should indicate such limitations. If such limitations are so material that the Secretarial Auditor is unable to express any opinion, the Secretarial Auditor should state that in the absence of necessary information and records, he is unable to report on compliance(s) relating to such areas by the Company.

Further, the Board of Directors, in its Board's report, shall explain in full any qualification or observation or other remarks made by the Company Secretary in Practice in the Secretarial Audit Report.

26. Is Secretarial Audit applicable to companies closing their financial year on March 31, 2014?

The requirement of Rule 9 of the Companies (Appointment and Remuneration of Managerial Personnel) Rules, 2014 relating to Secretarial Audit Report has come into effect from April 1, 2014. Section 204(1) of the Companies Act, 2013 provides that the Secretarial Audit Report shall be annexed to the Board's Report made under sub-section(3) of section 134.

As per MCA Circular No.08/2014 dated 4th April, 2014, the financial statement (and documents required to be attached thereto), Auditor's Report and Board's Report in respect of financial years that commenced earlier than 1st April, 2014 shall be governed by the relevant provisions/ Schedules/ Rules of the Companies Act, 1956 and that in respect of financial years commencing on or after 1st April, 2014, the provisions of the new Act shall apply.

Combined reading of Act, The rules and the circular shows that in case of prescribed companies, the financial year of which closed on 31st March, 2014, Secretarial Audit is not applicable for that year.

All the companies to whom the Secretarial Audit becomes mandatory under Companies Act 2013, need to undertake the Secretarial audit for the financial year 2014-2015.

27. Is the Secretarial Auditor required to obtain a Letter of Representation from the Auditee company?

It is strongly advised that the Company Secretary in Practice obtain a management representation letter from the auditee company. The letter may be signed by senior management (Company Secretary/Managing Director/ Senior Management) who would normally have authority to issue the same. Suggested format of the management representation letter is included in the publication "Guidance Note on Secretarial Audit." The format may be changed, depending on the circumstances and facts governing each audit.

The Secretarial Auditor can use this letter of representation as part of his audit evidence.

28. Is Secretarial Audit applicable to a private company which is a subsidiary of a public company?

Section 2(71) of the Companies Act, 2013 defines a "Public Company as one

- (a) Which is not a private company;
- (b) Has a minimum paid-up share capital of five lakh rupees or such higher paid-up capital as may be prescribed.

The proviso to the definition states that "Provided that a company which is a subsidiary of a company, not being a private company, shall be deemed to be public company for the purposes of this Act even where such subsidiary company continues to be a private company in its articles.

By this definition, it can be inferred that Secretarial Audit would be applicable to a private company which is a subsidiary of a public company, and which falls under the prescribed class of companies.
