SEBI in News

- SEBI has tightened its grip on board composition at market infrastructure institutions (MIIs). The regulator already has a strict framework in place dictating the appointments and tenures of board members at stock exchanges, clearing corporations and depositories termed MIIs in market parlance. However, it appears that regulator opposed reappointment of certain 'shareholder directors' due to concerns over their lengthy association.

New norms for Foreign Listing soon

The Ministry of Corporate Affairs is close to releasing a draft report that will pave the way for Indian companies to list their shares in overseas markets without listing in India first.

The Ministry will propose changes to the Foreign Exchange Management Act (FEMA), the Income Tax Act and the Companies Act. These will include amendments on taxing share transfers in India and adding enabling provisions under the Companies Act, 2013 to allow listing of certain classes of securities on stock exchanges in permissible foreign jurisdictions.
