APRIL 2022

Message from the President

सर्वस्तरतु दुर्गाणि सर्वो भद्राणि पश्यतु ।
सर्वः कामानवाप्नोतु सर्वः सर्वत्र नन्दतु ॥
(May all overcome the difficulties, may all see abundant happiness, may everyone's desires get fulfilled, may all rejoice in every circumstance.)

Dear Professional Colleagues,

The month of April brings with it celebrations galore. Be it Navaratri, Ugadi, Gudi Padwa or Baisakhi, each of the festivities render the entire month memorable and leave us in high spirits – ones which are truly necessary not only in our individual personal lives but in our professional lives as well for it is this time that marks the beginning of a new Financial year as well.

If I were to take a student point of view, well, it is this time of the year that marks the gearing up of socks and dusting the book shelves to set the revisions and re-revisions in motion for the June, 2022 Examinations to follow soon.

Friends, sharing some of the significant happenings of the past month, it was indeed heartening to have represented the Institute, our professional fraternity and the entire nation on a global forum as versatile and prodigious as the Dubai Expo 2020. I believe it would go a long way in redefining the journey of the profession – the one undertaken till date as well as the one intended to be taken this point forward.

While each one of us is found to be saying that 'the world is changing', more often than not, we see heads nod in unison in acceptance and agreement to this. But what really matters more than anything is the fact as to how well defined and refined our approach must be as we tread forward fostering innovation, adding strength to our capabilities and focusing & refocusing upon our goals of achieving excellence.

With the June 2022 session Examinations just a month away, I hope that all the young minds must have put themselves to rigorous efforts and exercise knowing fully that the techniques of rote learning may not be feasible in attaining excellence in professional education. To quote W. B. Yeats,

"Education is not the filling of a pot but the lighting of a fire."

Happy learning !!!

Warm regards,

(CS Devendra V. Deshpande)

Russia and Ukrainian Conflict - Its Genesis and Impact on India*

Introduction

The current conflict between Russia and Ukraine has its genesis in 1990, when anti-communist protests engulfed central and Eastern Europe whose spark ignited in Poland and gradually became a fire and spreaded throughout the Soviet bloc. In Ukraine, January 1990 witnessed more than 400,000 people joining hands in a human chain stretching some 400 miles from the western city of Ivano-Frankivsk to Kyiv, the capital, in the north-central part of Ukraine. Many wave the blue and yellow Ukrainian flag that had been banned under Soviet rule.

Following an unsuccessful coup in Moscow, the Ukrainian parliament declares independence a second time on Aug. 24, a date that is still celebrated as Ukraine's official Independence Day. Coming to the present scenario,

Exhibit 1

Chronology of the key events in Ukraine's political history triggering conflict with Russia

Years	Events
1991	Leonid Kravchuk, leader of the Soviet republic of Ukraine, declares independence from Moscow. In a referendum and presidential election, Ukrainians approved independence and elected Kravchuk as president.
1994	Leonid Kuchma defeated Kravchuk in a presidential election which was deemed largely free and fair by the observers.
1999	Kuchma was re-elected in 1999 in a vote riddled with irregularities.
2004	Pro-Russian candidate Viktor Yanukovich was declared president but allegations of vote-rigging triggered protests which came to be known as the Orange Revolution, forcing a re-run of the vote. A pro-Western former prime minister, Viktor Yushchenko, was elected president.

Views expressed in the Article are the sole expression of the Author and may not express the views of the Institute.

2005	Yushchenko took power with promises to lead Ukraine out of the Kremlin`s orbit, towards NATO and the EU. He appointed former energy company boss Yulia Tymoshenko as prime minister but, after infighting in the pro-Western camp, she was sacked.
2008	NATO promised Ukraine it will one day join the alliance.
2010	Yanukovich defeated Tymoshenko in a presidential election. Russia and Ukraine clinched a gas pricing deal in exchange for extending the lease for the Russian navy in a Ukrainian Black Sea port.
2013	Yanukovich`s government suspended trade and association talks with the EU in November and opted to revive economic ties with Moscow, triggering months of mass rallies in Kyiv.
2014	There was a protest largely focused around Kyiv`s Maidan square that turned violent. Dozens of protesters were killed. In February, parliament voted to remove Yanukovich, who fled. Within days, armed men seized parliament in the Ukrainian region of Crimea and raised the Russian flag. Moscow annexed the territory after a March 16 referendum which received overwhelming support in Crimea for joining the Russian Federation. In April, pro-Russian separatists in the eastern region of Donbass declared independence. Fighting broke out which continued sporadically, despite frequent ceasefires, in 2022. In May, businessman Petro Poroshenko won a presidential election with a pro-Western agenda. In July, a missile brought down passenger plane MH17 en route from Amsterdam to Kuala Lumpur, killing all 298 people on board. The weapon used was traced back by investigators to Russia, which denied involvement.
2017	An association agreement between Ukraine and the EU opens markets for free trade of goods and services, and visa-free travel to the EU for Ukrainians.
2019	A new Ukrainian Orthodox church won formal recognition, angering the Kremlin. • Former comic actor Volodymyr Zelenskiy defeated Poroshenko in an April presidential election on promises to tackle corruption and end the war in eastern Ukraine. His Servant of the People party won a July parliamentary election. • U.S. President Donald Trump asked Zelenskiy in July to investigate Joe Biden, his rival in the U.S. presidential race, and Biden`s son Hunter over possible business dealings in Ukraine. The call resulted into a failed attempt to impeach Trump.

March 2020	Ukraine goes into its first lockdown to curb COVID-19.
June 2020	IMF approved a $5 billion lifeline to help Ukraine staved off the default during a pandemic-induced recession.
2021	January - Zelenskiy appealed to Biden, U.S. president, to let Ukraine join NATO.
	February- Zelenskiy`s government imposed sanctions on Viktor Medvedchuk, an opposition leader and the Kremlin`s most prominent ally in Ukraine.
	Spring- Russia deployed troops near Ukraine`s borders in what it says are training exercises.
	October- Ukraine used a Turkish Bayraktar TB2 drone for the first time in eastern Ukraine, angering Russia.
	Autumn- Russia again began deploying troops near Ukraine.
	December 7- Biden warned Russia of sweeping Western economic sanctions if it invades Ukraine.
	December 17- Russia presented detailed security demands including a legally binding guarantee that NATO will give up any military activity in eastern Europe and Ukraine.
2022	January 10- U.S. and Russian diplomats failed to narrow differences on Ukraine.
	January 14- A cyber-attack warning Ukrainians to "be afraid and expect the worst" hit Ukrainian government websites.
	January 17- Russian forces start arriving in Belarus, to the north of Ukraine, for joint drills.
	January 24- NATO put forces on standby and reinforces eastern Europe with more ships and fighter jets.
	January 26- Washington presented a written response to Russia`s security demands, repeating a commitment to NATO`s "open-door" policy while offering "pragmatic" discussions of Moscow`s concerns.
	January 28- President Vladimir Putin said Russia`s main security demands have not been addressed.
	Feb 2 - The United States said it will send 3,000 extra troops to Poland and Romania to help shield NATO allies in eastern Europe from any spillover from the crisis.

	Feb 4 - Putin, at Beijing Winter Olympics, won Chinese support for his demand that Ukraine not be allowed to join NATO.
	Feb 7 - French President Emmanuel Macron saw some hope for a diplomatic resolution of the crisis after meeting Putin in the Kremlin. Macron then visits Kyiv and praises the "sang-froid" of Zelenskiy and the Ukrainian people.
	Feb 9 - Biden said "things could go crazy quickly" as the U.S. State Department advises Americans in Ukraine to leave immediately. Other countries also urge their nationals to leave.
	Feb 14 - Zelenskiy urged Ukrainians to fly flags and sing the national anthem in unison on Feb. 16, a date some Western media say Russia could invade.
	Feb 15 - Russia said some of its troops are returning to base after exercises near Ukraine and mocks Western warnings about a looming invasion. Russia`s parliament asks Putin to recognise as independent two Russian-backed breakaway regions in eastern Ukraine.
	Feb 18 - U.S. ambassador to the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe Michael Carpenter said Russia has probably deployed between 169,000-190,000 personnel in and near Ukraine.
	Feb 19 - Russia`s strategic nuclear forces hold exercises overseen by Putin.
	Feb 21 - France`s Macron said Biden and Putin have agreed in principle to a summit over Ukraine.
	Feb 21 - Putin signed a decree recognising two breakaway regions in eastern Ukraine as independent entities.

Impact on India

In a country where an average household spends two-thirds of the daily income on buying a vegetarian meal, rising prices of key ingredients following Russia's invasion of Ukraine will make Indians feel the pinch. This may result into people having little left to spend on other essential items like health and education.

Most people in India depend on agriculture for their livelihood and hence, food availability is not a big problem. However, affordability still is. The Russia-Ukraine war and the consequent supply chain disruptions have only aggravated this concern in India.

Sanctions on Russia, one of the world's largest wheat and sunflower oil producers, have led to a spike in wheat and edible oil prices in India as well. These are the two components that form the heart of an Indian platter. Besides, Russia is also the world's third-largest crude oil producer, and the ongoing sanctions on the country have sent strong headwinds into the global oil market. Brent crude is trading almost consistently above USD 100 a barrel. The subsequent price rise in the retail market is also taking place.

It is to be noted that prices of wheat, mustard, barley, cotton and soybean are up by 14 per cent, 30 per cent, 76 per cent, 61 per cent and 36 per cent. Further, it is believed that Rabi crops like wheat will give an incremental profit of Rs 30,200 crore and major crops Rs 57,800 crore, an increase of 32 per cent year-on-year basis. India's direct trade exposure to Russia, Ukraine and Belarus is merely 1% of total exports and 2.1% of total imports, but its reliance on supply of specific products is much higher. Please refer exhibit 2 for India's trade exposure to Russia and Ukraine.

Exhibit 2

Gauging India's trade exposure to Russia-Ukraine

Goods	Trade Exposure
Project goods	32.5%
Edible oils	11.5%
Fertilisers	11.1%
Paper products	6.6%
Crude oil and oil	2.8%
Chemicals	2.4%
Precious stones	1.6%
Iron and Steel	1.1%

Source: Quartz

Thus, it can be observed from the above mentioned exhibit that India has big exposure to both the countries engaged in war, i.e., Russia and Ukraine. The exposure to the project goods is highest, followed by edible oils, fertilisers and so on and so forth. Now if the war persist for long then India might have to witness shortages in supply of these goods thereby exerting a debilitating impact on supply of oil, production of significant goods and services etc.

Coming to the economic growth of India, in 2022 it was estimated that Indian economy will grow at 6.7 percent, but UNCTAD (United Nations Conference on Trade and Development) has reduced it to 4.6 percent. As mentioned above, India may face tough situations on numerous fronts including energy access and prices, trade on primary commodities, repercussions due to trade sanctions, food inflation, tighter policies and financial instability.

According to Reserve Bank of India (RBI), the estimated Real GDP growth for FY 2023 is 7.8%, if the prices of oil is at $100 / barrel and $125 / barrel then estimated Real GDP growth is 7.1% and 6.5% respectively.

Conclusion

There is a silver lining too i.e., Russia Ukraine war has created opportunities for Indian Agriculture by disrupting global Agri commodity chain due to supply disruptions and that augurs well for the rural economy. Ukraine is amongst largest global exporters of wheat, sunflower, barley, rapeseed and maize with share of 10 per cent, 47 per cent, 17 per cent, 20 per cent and 14 per cent of global exports. Russia also has strong presence with global exports of 25 per cent, 18 per cent and 14 per cent in sunflower, wheat and barley.

According to the International Monetary Fund, the efficient macroeconomic management of the Covid-19 pandemic has resulted in a strong recovery of India's economy because of which the country is in a better position to face the economic fallout of the current Ukrainian crisis.

Observing that India represents about seven per cent of the total world economy in purchasing power parity (PPP) terms and is one of the countries that are growing rapidly, IMF's Mission Chief for India Nada Choueiri said that India's growth is lifting the global economy and is very important for a well-functioning global economy.

Thus, the ongoing crisis between Russia and Ukraine has shook almost the whole world and India being a major trade partner of Russia is also experiencing its negative impact but as mentioned above, despite crisis, there are opportunities too. Further, being an emerging economy of the globe, India will definitely withstand this tough situation and will continue to grow at a fast pace.
