3. Extension of registration shall be granted for a period of one or two years at a time on payment of registration fees of Rs. 500 per year on the 15th of each year, for a maximum period of five years. The student may also be charged Rs. 300 per module for all services rendered by the Institute, the extended period will be counted as part of his previous registration, and he/she will also continue to bear the same registration number.

4. No candidate shall be allowed more than two extensions of registration, and this rule is applicable under all previous syllabus for completing Professional Programme examination under the New Syllabus.

5. A student who completes the Professional Programme examination (of the same stream) before the extended period of registration will be required to comply with the practical experience and practical training requirements as stipulated under Company Secretaries Regulations, 1992 and guidelines issued from time to time in this regard.

“Professionalism is knowing how to do it, when to do it, and doing it.”

...Frank Tyger

Dear Students,

Becoming a professional is an attitude adjustment process that begins with understanding and appreciating what it means to be a professional, creating a personal vision of professionalism, and aligning one's values with that vision. To flourish as a true professional in the overly competitive world, we must recognize the need for change particularly in view of the services rendered by various professions which are now driven by the quality of service, speed of service and the cost effectiveness of the service. We need to initiate and enhance professionalism through truly professional attitude and ensure that the services are rendered in a professional manner, adhering to the professional standards and the tenets of professionalism.

I would like to congratulate those of you who have been declared successful in June 2012 examinations the results of which were declared on 25th of August all over India. Your hard work and dedication have enabled you to reap the success of your earnest efforts.

To those of you who could not clear the examinations this time, I urge not to feel discouraged. Reactivate yourself, identify the deficiencies, set your goal and make a determined effort towards achieving the desired goal and be a winner. If you have set your goal and your efforts are sincere, I see no reason as to why you can't get the results as per your expectations. Don't be afraid of obstacles. Obstacles are necessary for success because victory comes only after many hurdles and failures.

40th National Convention on the theme Vision 2020 – Transform, Conform and Perform will be held on October 4 - 6, 2012 at Aamby Valley City, Ambavane, Dist. Pune, Maharashtra (Near Lonavala). The theme of the National Convention will be deliberated in four sub themes: (i) Economic Volatility and Risk Management, (ii) CS - Whistle Blower or Conscience Keeper, (iii) Financial Markets – Engine for Economic Growth, (iv) Challenges and Opportunities in SME Sector. I advise you to ensure your participation at the Convention as a delegate which will be a great learning experience for you. That apart, the deliberations and discussions would also provide you a clear insight into the path of adaptability to change that would ultimately benefit you as aspiring professionals. An announcement containing details of the Convention has been published in September-2012 issue of Chartered Secretary and the same has been posted on the website of the Institute as well.

The Institute has entered into an MOU with National Stock Exchange of India Ltd. The areas of collaboration under MOU include, Fee concession to the students of ICSI in NSE's Certification in Financial Markets (NCFM) modules being conducted by NSE; Visits of Students and Members of ICSI to NSE through ICSI-CCGRT; Training to Company Secretaries in securities markets and corporate governance; Joint organisation of Investor Awareness Programmes; Joint compliance seminars for the trading members of NSE and Compliance Officers of the listed companies; Regular exchange of resources of mutual interest and Exchange of faculty(ies); Co-operation in developing curriculum of academic and continuing education programmes and developing new certification modules.

The Institute has also entered into an MOU with the Stock Exchange Investors' Protection fund, a recognised Public Trust established by BSE Limited. The areas of collaboration under MOU include Conducting investor awareness programmes on Micro, Small & Medium Enterprises (MSMEs); Conducting programmes for creating awareness about International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS); Training and education programmes in financial market interface with corporate laws, secretarial practices and corporate governance; Webcasts of panel discussions and presentation of experts on various aspects of financial markets and corporate governance and creating useful web contents for corporates; Conducting
From the President

The Institute has always demonstrated its commitment to corporate governance and has played a pivotal role in bringing about awareness on various issues relating to corporate governance. In line with its vision, and furthering the cause of good governance amongst corporate India, the Institute celebrated “2nd ICSI Corporate Governance Week” on the theme Good Governance for Sustainability, from 27th to 31st August, 2012 by organizing five mega programmes at Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Mumbai, Kolkata and New Delhi. The idea behind the ICSI Corporate Governance Week is to create awareness, propagate the best practices of corporate governance and mainstream corporate responsibility in the social fabric.

In addition, various programmes and other events on corporate governance and sustainability were also organised through the Institute’s Regional Councils and Chapters during the week. The following publications of the Institute were released during the Corporate Governance Week:
1. Role of Company Secretary in Corporate Governance
2. Gender Diversity in Boardrooms
3. Responsibly Managing E-waste
4. Sustainability Reporting for Sustainable Future
5. Theme Paper on Good Governance for Sustainability

As you know, the Institute has been pursuing with State Governments to recognise Company Secretaries under their respective VAT Legislations and various States have acceded to our request. I am pleased to inform you that the Government of Delhi has notified Delhi Value Added Tax (Second Amendment) Act, 2012, amending Section 82(1) (b) to include the Practising Company Secretaries to appear before the Delhi VAT authorities.

On this note I would like to conclude by stating that renowned professionals have said that success and accomplishment are not limited to those who are lucky. They are available to anyone and everyone who chooses to be disciplined, focused, persistent, committed, positive and enthusiastic. I clearly look upon you as chosen one to succeed as successful professionals.

Present Value = $80,000 / (1+0.10)^5$
= Rs. 49,674

Assume in the same example, the rate of return is 15%,
Present Value will be = $80,000 / (1+0.15)^5$
= 39,774

The above calculation shows, higher the discount rate, the lower the present value of the future cash flows.

Future Value of a lump sum: Future value of a lump sum refers to the value after a certain period of time at the given rate of interest.

It may be calculated by under given formula

$$FV_t = CF_0 * (1+r)^t \text{ OR } FV_t = PV_t * (1+r)^t$$

Where $FV_t$ = Future Value after a period $t$

$R_t$ = Rate of return

$PV_t$ = Present Value

Example

Find present value of maturity value of Rs. 10,000 which has been given on 15% interest for five years while required rate of return is 10%.

$FV$ of Rs. 10,000 @ 15% after five years = Rs. 10,000 $(1+0.15)^5 = Rs. 20,113.57$

Present Value of Rs. 20,113.57 which is to be received after 5 years = $Rs.20,113.57 / (1+0.10)^5 = Rs. 12,488.94$

Present Value of a cash flow stream: It refers to the present value of a series of cash flows occurred in different years.

Example

Find present Value of cash flows to be accrued as given below when required rate of return is 10%

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Period</th>
<th>Cash Flow in Rs.</th>
<th>Additional Cash outflow</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>80000</td>

<td>70000</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>50000</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4</td>
<td>30000</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Present Value = $80,000 / (1+0.10)^1 + 70,000 / (1+0.10)^2 + 50,000 / (1+0.10)^3 + 30,000 / (1+0.10)^4 = Rs. 1,88,635$

Net Present Value: Net Present Value is the difference between the sum total of present values of all the future cash inflows and outflows:

Algebraically:

$$NPV = \sum_{t=1}^{N} R_t / (1+k)^t + \sum_{t=1}^{N} W_t / (1+k)^t - \sum_{t=1}^{N} C_t / (1+k)^t$$

If cash outflow is also expected to occur at some time other than initial investment (non-conventional cash flows) then formula would be

$$NPV = \sum_{t=1}^{N} R_t / (1+k)^t + \sum_{t=1}^{N} W_t / (1+k)^t - \sum_{t=1}^{N} C_t / (1+k)^t$$

Example

A Company has Invested Rs. 8,00,000 in a business and expected a series of cash flow as per under given details

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Cash Flow in Rs.</th>
<th>Additional Cash outflow</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>2,50,000</td>

<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>4,20,000</td>
<td>1,05,000</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
At the end of fourth year company made a sale of scrap for Rs 2,40,000 and realized Rs. 30,000 from working capital. Find Net Present Value (N.P.V) if required rate of return is 10%.

Solution

Present Value of Cash Flows = Rs. (2,50,000/(1+0.10)^2 + 3,50,000/(1+0.10)^3 + 40,000/(1+0.10)^4) = Rs. 11,92,507

Present Value of Cash Out flows = Rs. (8,00,000/(1+0.05, 000)/(1+0.10)^2 + 10,000/(1+0.10)^4) = Rs. 8,93,607

Net Present Value = Present Value of Cash Inflow - Present Value of Cash Outflows = Rs. 11,92,507 - 8,93,607 = Rs. 2,98,900.

Internal Rate of Return (IRR)

The internal rate of return refers to the rate which equates the present value of cash inflows and present value of cash outflows. In other words, it is the rate at which net present value of the investment is zero. If the Net Present Value is positive, a higher discount rate may be used to bring it down to equalize the discount cash inflows and vice versa. That is why Internal Rate of Return is defined as the break even financing rate for the project.

Computation of Internal Rate of Return

The computation of Internal Rate of Return is relatively complicated and difficult compared to Net Present Value. One has to follow trial and error exercise to ascertain Internal Rate of Return (IRR) which equates the cash inflows and outflows of the investment proposals. Under net present value, k is known, but under this method it is worked out.

Initially the Internal rate of return (r) may give

NPV > 0 \[ r > k \] (higher rate will be tried)

NPV = 0 \[ r = k \]

NPV < 0 \[ r < k \] (lower rate will be tried)

To calculate the exact figure, we use the method of interpolation

or

\[ IRR(r) = r_H - \frac{PV_c - PV_{CFAT}}{DPV} \cdot Dr \]

\[ r_L = \text{The lower rate of discount.} \]

\[ PV_{CFAT} = \text{Calculated present value of cash inflow.} \]

\[ PV_c = \text{Present value of cash outlay.} \]

\[ \Delta PV = \text{Difference in calculated present value.} \]

\[ \Delta r = \text{Difference in rate of interest.} \]

\[ r_H = \text{The higher rate of discount.} \]

Example

Calculate Internal Rate of Return for a project where initial investment is Rs. 18,000. The annual cash flow will be Rs. 8,000, 7,000 and 6,000 in the respective 3 years.

Rs.16,200 having an economic life of 3 years. The annual Cash inflow shall be Rs. 8,000, 7,000 and 6,000 in the respective 3 years. Calculate Internal Rate of Return.

\[ \text{Average cash inflow} = \frac{Rs. 8,000 + 7,000 + 6,000}{3} = Rs. 7,000 \]

\[ \text{Initial Investment/Average Cash Outflow} = Rs. 16,200/Rs. 7,000 = 2.314 \]

According to annuity table factor closest to 2.314 for 3 years are 2.322 (14%) and 2.246 (16%). Broad results are given in the following table:

\[ \text{PV For 14% Discounting Rate} = 8,000/(1+0.14)^1 + 7,000/(1+0.14)^2 + 6,000 (1+0.14)^3 \]

\[ = Rs. 16,449 \]

Net Present value

\[ = Rs. 16,449-16,200= 249 \]

Net Present Value

\[ = Rs. 249 \]

According to Present value table, cumulative present value nearer to 3.214 for five years are 3.2 (16% discount rate) and 3.199 (17% discount rate).

Net Present Value for both the rates are as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Rate of Discount</th>
<th>Total PV at 16%</th>
<th>Total PV at 17%</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Less Initial outlay</td>
<td>Rs. 5,600x3.274</td>
<td>Rs. 5,600x3.199</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>NPV</td>
<td>Rs. 18,334.40</td>
<td>Rs. 17,914.40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Rs. 18,000.00</td>
<td>Rs. 18,000.00</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Since in none of the cases Net present value is equal to Zero, we will have to use the under given formula for calculating NPV

or

\[ IRR(r) = r_H - \frac{PV_c - PV_{CFAT}}{DPV} \cdot Dr \]

\[ r_L = \text{The lower rate of discount.} \]

\[ PV_{CFAT} = \text{Calculated present value of cash inflow.} \]

\[ PV_c = \text{Present value of cash outlay.} \]

\[ \Delta PV = \text{Difference in calculated present value.} \]

\[ \Delta r = \text{Difference in rate of interest.} \]

\[ r_H = \text{The higher rate of discount.} \]

\[ r = 16 \]

\[ PV_{CFAT} = +18,334.40 \]

\[ PV_c = 18,000 \]

\[ \Delta PV = 420 \]

\[ \Delta r = 1 \]

\[ IRR = 16 + \frac{334}{420} \cdot 1 = 16.8 \]

Alternatively it can be worked out by using higher rate of return.

Example No 2

Company A is proposed to install a new machine costing Rs.16,200 having an economic life of 3 years. The annual Cash inflow shall be Rs. 8,000, 7,000 and 6,000 in the respective 3 years. Calculate Internal Rate of Return.

Securities Laws and Compliances

BASIC SERVICES DEMAT ACCOUNT (BSDA)

With a view to achieve wider financial inclusion, encourage holding of demat accounts and to reduce the cost of maintaining securities in demat accounts for retail individual investors, Securities and Exchange Board of India introduced the concept of basic services demat account (BSDA). All depository participants (DPs) shall make available a “Basic Services Demat Account” (BSDA) with limited services and reduced costs compared to conventional demat accounts. These BSDA will also offer SMS alert facility for debit transactions. As per SEBI, DPs will have to offer such BSDA from 1 October, this year.

Who can open BSDA?

The “Basic Services Demat Account” (BSDA) promises to provide limited services at reduced costs to retail investors. All individual who currently have one account or plan to open a demat account where they are the sole first holder will be allowed to open the BSDA, provided that the value of securities held will not be more than Rs2 lakh at any given point of time. However, Investors can open only one BSDA across all DPs.

What are the charges?

CORPORATE LAWS

LW(S)14.08.2012

Indermeet Kaur, J. [Decided on 18/07/2012]

Companies Act, 1956 - Section 58A-nonrefund of deposit-CLB directed to refund deposit with interest-company refunded the principal but not the interest-depositor again approached CLB for refund of interest which was allowed-Company’s application for recalling the order rejected-Whether correct-Held, Yes.

Brief facts: Population Foundation of India (hereinafter referred to as the respondent) made certain deposits to the tune of Rs.75 lacs to Cement Corporation of India (hereinafter referred to as the petitioner); the said amounts not having been returned back to the respondent, an application under Section 58(A) of the Companies Act was filed before the Company Law Board. The Company Law Board after considering the respective contentions of the parties passed order dated 16.01.2004 directing the Petitioner to refund the deposit with interest. Against this order, an appeal was preferred by the petitioner before the High Court but withdrawn on 29.05.2006. However, the High Court vide order dated 29.05.2006 clarified that if Population Foundation of India has any grievance or a legal right, it would be entitled to pursue the same. On the basis of this order, the respondent filed another application before the CLB for the payment of interest which was allowed by CLB vide order dated 31.08.2007. The petitioner applied for recall of this order but CLB refused to do so vide order dated 18.10.07. These two orders are now the subject matter of appeal before the High Court.

Decision: Appeal dismissed.

Reason: The question which has to be answered is whether the petitioner is liable to pay interest on the aforesaid sum of Rs.75 lacs made by him or whether this payment of Rs.75 lacs made by him as full and final settlement between the parties.

The stand of the respondent is forceful and is answered in his favour by the documents on record. Record shows that admittedly on 16.01.2004, the petitioner had been directed to refund the deposit of the respondents along with the interest at the contracted rate till the date of maturity and thereafter at the rate of 5% per annum till date i.e. the date of actual payment. This order has since attained finality by the withdrawal of the appeal by the petitioner on 29.05.2006.

The communication of the petitioner to the respondent dated 10.05.2006 had made an offer of Rs.75 lacs as a onetime settlement; the reply of the respondent dated 17.05.2006 had however clearly stated that this amount of Rs.75 lacs was a payment of principal amount; it was accepted as the principal figure which is further clarified by the order dated 29.05.2006 when the petitioner had withdrawn his appeal, at that point of time also, the respondent not being satisfied with the amount of Rs.75 lacs which he had received had got the benefit of the Court permitting him to get his grievance/legal right addressed. This was accordingly followed up by his filing an application before the Company Law Board pursuant to which the aforesaid two impugned orders had been passed.

The next submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that the respondent is bound by the order of the BIFR which had approved the scheme of rehabilitation of the petitioner company on 03.05.2006; attention has been drawn to Para 7.1 of the said scheme; submission being that the respondent was entitled to receive only the principal sum and no interest quotient was permitted which order of the BIFR was approved by the AIFR vide its order dated 28.03.2000; further submission being that this scheme has been approved by the High Court and finally by the Supreme Court in the year 2008; the petitioner is bound by the terms contained therein; on this count also, he is not entitled to any interest.

This submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner is also without force. A Bench of this Court in LG Electronics Ltd v. Usaha (India) Ltd & Anr EFA (OS) No.16/2003 dated 16.03.2007 has held that the deposit amounts by A company with B company where B company is declared as a sick company would not attract the provisions of Section 22 of the SICA; the said amounts having been deposited as a trust money, provisions of Section 22 of the SICA would not be applicable.

The Division Bench of this Court had noted that a deposit made by a depositor to a company is not a loan; it is money which is given in trust; bar of Section 22 (1) of the SICA is not applicable; as such the amount due to the respondent could not come within the ambit of the scheme promulgated by the BIFR; the BIFR was only dealing with the assets of the sick company; the deposits made by the respondent with the petitioner being a trust money with the respondent were not encompassed within this scheme; the terms of the scheme would thus even otherwise not be binding upon the respondent. On all counts, the impugned orders calls for no interference.

DOOSAN POWER SYSTEMS INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED v. DOOSAN CHENNAI WORKS PRIVATE LIMITED [DEL] C.P.No. 151/2012

Indermeet Kaur, J. [Decided on 10/07/2012]

Companies Act, 1956 - Sections 391 to 394-amalgamation-scheme provided for change of name and corresponding amendment/alteration in the memorandum and articles of association of transferee company – Regional director objected and insisted separate proceedings prescribed in the Act to be followed- Whether tenable-Held, No.

Brief facts: This petition has been filed under Section 391 to 394 of the Companies Act, 1956 (for short Act) by the Petitioner/Transferor Company seeking sanction of the Scheme of Amalgamation (for short Scheme) of Doosan Power Systems India Private Limited (hereinafter referred to as Petitioner Company or the Transferor Company) with Doosan Chennai Works Private Limited (hereinafter referred to as Transferee Company). One of the terms of the scheme is that upon amalgamation, the name of the transferee company will be changed and the memorandum and articles of association of the transferee company amended/ altered accordingly. Regional director took an objection that this has to be done by following the specific procedure prescribed in the Act and not under the scheme of amalgamation.

Decision: Objection rejected and scheme sanctioned.

Reason: In reply to the aforesaid objection, it is submitted by the petitioner that the approval of the Scheme in terms of Sections 391-394 of the Act is a Single Window Clearance and no further fact on the part of Transferee Company is required to be done after the approval of the Scheme, for giving effect to the alteration in the Memorandum of Association and change in Name of the Transferee Company. Further, reliance upon the order dated 18.7.2011 passed by this Court in the matter of BSK Engineers Pvt. Ltd. (Company Petition NO.44/2011), wherein similar objections raised by the Regional Director, had been rejected by this Court in this regard. In view of the aforesaid submissions, objections raised by the Regional Director no longer Survive.

In view of the approval accorded by the Shareholders and Creditors of the Petitioner/Transferor Company, representation/reports filed by the Regional Director, Northern Region and the Official Liquidator, attached with this Court to the proposed Scheme of Amalgamation, there appears to be no impediment to the grant of sanction to the Scheme of Amalgamation. Consequently, sanction is hereby granted to the Scheme of Amalgamation under Sections 391 and 394 of the Companies Act, 1956. The petitioner/Transferor Company will comply with the statutory requirements in accordance with law. Certified copy of the order will be filed with the Registrar of Companies within 30 days from the date of receipt of the same. In terms of the provisions of Sections 391 and 394 of the Act, and in terms of the Scheme, the whole of the undertaking, the property, rights and powers of the Petitioner/Transferor Company be transferred to and vest in the Transferee Company without any further act or deed. Similarly, in terms of the Scheme, all the liabilities and dues of the Petitioner/Transferor Company will be transferred to the Transferee Company without any further act or deed. It is however, clarified that this order will not be construed as an order granting exemption from payment of stamp duty or taxes or any other charges, if payable in accordance with any law; or permission/compliance with any other department which may be specifically required under any law. The Transferor Company shall stand dissolved without following the process of winding up. Further, since the jurisdiction of the Transferee Company is before the High Court of Madras and the said Transferee Company has already move a petition over there, this order is subject to the sanction of the Scheme by the High Court of Madras.

Decision: Scheme sanctioned.

Reason: I have considered the main charge of the Objector that the Scheme is a device for avoidance of tax, and have also considered the submissions advanced on behalf of the Petitioners in response to this charge.

In view of the observations of the Hon’ble Supreme Court in the Vodafone decision, the submission of the Objector herein that he is fortified by the decision in McDowell’s case, and that the decision in Azadi Bachao Andolan is per in curium or is contrary to the decision in McDowell’s case is rejected. The decision of the Gujarat High Court in the case of Wood Polymer Limited (supra) is no longer good law, in view of the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of Azadi Bachao Andolan and Vodafone International Holdings (supra).

As regards the submission of the Objector that this Court should direct the Transferee Company to impale the income tax authority as a necessary party, in my view, the income tax authority is not required to be heard while sanctioning the Scheme under Section 391-394 of the Companies Act, 1956.

The Objector has also raised a grievance that the shares of the Transferee Company held by the Transferor Companies which are purely tradable and transferable without any restrictions cannot be transferred through the present Scheme of Arrangement. As submitted on behalf of the Petitioners, the Promoters are not looking for an exit from the Transferee Company through divestment and have adopted one of the available methods for reorganizing their shareholding. In the case of scheme of arrangement between Tata Services Limited and Tatanet services Limited, wherein a commercial division of Tata Services Limited was proposed to be transferred, the Regional Director had objected that the transfer could be achieved through compliance of the provisions of Section 293(1)(a) of the Companies Act, 1956. This Court dealing with the said objection has held that if the Petitioners have adopted an elaborate route to achieve the objective, they cannot be faulted for the same.

The purpose of the Scheme is to provide long term stability and transparency in the Transferee Company. The Transferor Companies are in existence since 1975. It was felt that it would be in the interest of the Transferee Company to merge the five Transferor Companies with the Transferee Company, and to enable the Promoter thereof to hold shares directly in the Transferee Company rather than indirectly. The object of the Scheme is not to avoid any tax. Even today the shares are owned/controlled by the same Promoter albeit through the Transferor Companies. Under the Scheme the only difference is that the Promoter will now hold shares directly in the Transferee Company. It is correctly submitted by the Transferee Company that there is nothing illegal or unlawful or dubious or colourful in the Scheme and the same is a perfectly legitimate scheme and permissible by law. Therefore, the objection of the Objector that the Scheme is a tax avoidance device and ought not to be approved, stands rejected.

Co. Scheme Petition Nos. 670 to 675 of 2011, Co. Summons For Direction Nos. 598 To 603 Of 2011

S.J. Kathawalla, J. [Decided on 12/07/2012]

Companies Act, 1956 – Sections 391 and 394- amalgamation – promoter holding shares in transferor companies and also in transferor company-Scheme proposed to achieve this indirect shareholding of the promoter to become direct – Lone objector objected on the ground of tax avoidance-whether tenable-Held, No.

Brief facts: By the above Company Scheme Petitions, sanction of this Court is sought under Sections 391 to 394 read with Sections 80, 100 to 103 of the Companies Act, 1956, to the scheme of arrangement whereunder the five Companies AVM Capital Services Private Limited (ACPL); Chevy Capital Services Private Limited (CCSPL); PM Capital Services Private Limited (PCSL); Pranit Trading Private Limited (PTPL); and Viramrut Trading Private Limited (VTPL) (the Transferor Companies) are sought to be merged with Unichem Laboratories Limited (ULL) (the Transferee Company). Pursuant to the Scheme, the entire undertaking of the Transferor Companies would stand vested with the Transferee Company.

The Scheme was approved by an overwhelming majority of 99.99% in value of the shareholders present and voted. The Objector was the only shareholder who opposed the Scheme. The first, and the main objection of the Objector is that the Scheme is propounded to avoid capital gains tax that would have arisen if the Transferor Companies would have directly transferred their shares to the Promoters.

Decision: Scheme sanctioned.

Reason: I have considered the main charge of the Objector that the Scheme is a device for avoidance of tax, and have also considered the submissions advanced on behalf of the Petitioners in response to this charge.

In view of the observations of the Hon’ble Supreme Court in the Vodafone decision, the submission of the Objector herein that he is fortified by the decision in McDowell’s case, and that the decision in Azadi Bachao Andolan is per in curium or is contrary to the decision in McDowell’s case is rejected. right position from the link given to this effect.

Reason:

Now, coming back to the question when does the payment of compensation fall due and what would be the point for the commencement of interest, it may be noted that neither the decision in Mubasir Ahmed nor the one in Mohd. Nasir can be said to provide any valid guidelines because both the decisions were rendered in ignorance of earlier larger Bench decisions of this Court by which the issue was concluded. As early as in 1975 a four Judge Bench of this Court in Pratap Narain Singh Deo. Vs. Shrinivas Sabata and Anr., AIR 1975 SC 222 and in Kerala State Electricity Board vs. Valsala K, AIR 1999 SC 3502 directly answered the question.

In light of the decisions in Pratap Narain Singh Deo and Valsala it is not open to contend that the payment of compensation would fall due only after the Commissioner’s order or with reference to the date on which the claim application is made. The decisions in Mubasir Ahmed and Mohd. Nasir insofar as they took a contrary view to the earlier decisions in Pratap Narain Singh Deo and Valsala do not express the correct view and do not make binding precedents.
